

Lions to Play In Volleyball Tourney

By FRANK QUIGLEY

Penn State will be competing in a new sport this weekend when the Lions participate in the AAU National Volleyball championships held at the Central YMCA in Philadelphia today and tomorrow.

The tournament is conducted by the AAU to promote interest in volleyball, especially since the sport is now included in the Olympic games.

Assistant IM Director Ben Amato has selected the Lion team from the better players he has observed in intramural play. Amato has been drilling the team for the past three weeks.

Included on the team are Carl Yiesley, Bill Reinis, Don Thomas, Doug Gerard, Jack Christenson, Fred Claypoole, Tom Moran and

Al Longley. Two others, Tom Malinchak and Tom Edwards, have been sidelined by injuries.

Penn State's first opponent in the College division of the tournament will be George Williams College. George Williams was the runnerup in 1961 and champion in 1960. The match will be at 3:00 today.

The finals of the double elimination tournament will be held tomorrow night.

Chisox Beat Senators, 3-1 LA Defeat's Tigers, 6-4

WASHINGTON (AP) — Early Wynn lost a shutout in the ninth inning yesterday, but the White Sox veteran won the 294th game of his career by beating the Washington Senators, 3-1.

Wynn was just two outs away from his 47th shutout when Dale Long and Gene Woodling hit back-to-back doubles in the Senators' ninth. But he ended the threat by striking out John Schaive and getting Bob Schmidt on a fly out.

Giants Get Guglielmi

WASHINGTON (AP) — For Ralph Guglielmi it came as a wedding gift 10 days early yesterday to learn he had been traded to New York, defending champions of the National Football League's Eastern Conference.

The Giants obtained the veteran quarterback from St. Louis in exchange for rookie Bill Triplett and a high 1963 draft choice.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Al Kaline put Detroit ahead momentarily with his 10th home run but the Los Angeles Angels came back behind another fine performance by relief pitcher Ryne Duren and defeated the Tigers 6-4 yesterday.
