TIM Postpones Approval Of Town Housing Code

Before unconditionally approving the proposed State College Housing Code, the Town Independent Men's Council would have to know the code's provisions concerning enforcement and any discrimination clauses, Arthur Pergam, TIM president, said yesterday.

Earlier this week, Pergam had said that the housing code was completely satisfactory to TIM Council, but yesterday said that he wished to correct a misunderstanding.

The Council has not seen the complete code yet, he said, but the provisions concerning the hiring of a building inspector and calling for inspection of rental units for satisfactory room space, lighting and plumbing fixtures are acceptable to TIM, he explained.

HE SAID that he would try to get copies of the rough draft of the borough code before next Wednesday's meeting. The copies are needed so that the Council members will be able to discuss the provisions of the code before their representatives meet with the State College Housing Committee later this month, he said.

Commenting on the discrimination question, Lawrence J. Perez, Borough Council president, said that landlords probably will not be forced to rent to non-whites. Nevertheless, sufficient housing has always been and will be available to these people, he said.

PROVISIONS against discrimination are very controversial issues, and such measures would slow down the adoption of the code, he said. However, action on discrimination will probably be taken after the basic housing code is adopted, he added.

Subcommittee On Discipline Suspends 3

Two freshmen and a junior have been suspended from the University by the Senate Subcommittee on Discipline, Daniel R. Leasure, assistant dean of men, said yesterday.

Four other students were also disciplined by the subcommittee at its meeting Thursday.

One of the freshmen, who was placed on suspended suspension until the end of the fall term 1962, was discovered using another individual's bicycle without permission, Leasure said.

The other freshman, who was placed on suspended suspension for the same period of time, was found shooting at chickens at the University poultry plant with an air rifle, Leasure said. The student, who had been keeping the gun in his room, violated the University regulation against having firearms of any type in the residence halls.

THE JUNIOR, placed on suspended suspension until the end of the fall term 1963, had taken a coed out of the residence hall after closing hours. The coordinator saw the woman student leaving and reported the couple, Leasure said.

A senior, who acted as chauffeur in helping the pair leave the residence hall, was placed on disciplinary probation until the end of this term, Leasure said.

A sophomore was also placed on disciplinary probation until the end of the winter term 1962 because he was found inebriated near the Spring Week Carnival grounds, Leasure said.

A SENIOR received a deferred suspension until the end of the spring term when he will be suspended from the University until the end of the fall term 1962. The student altered his number two registration card at spring term registration.

Brunches, Teas, Concert Will Keep Mothers Busy

By PEGGY RUSH

Parents visiting campus tomorrow for Mother's Day Weekend will find a full and varied schedule of activities awaiting them.

From 9 to 11:30 a.m., Mom (and Dad) are invited to breakfast in various sorority suites and fraternity houses. After breakfast, they may attend worship services at Schwab or downtown churches.

If they don't wish to go to breakfast, at noon parents may attend brunches, buffets or formal dinners which are being sponsored by many fraternities and sororities.

For parents who want to eat in the residence hall dining rooms, tomorrow's menu will feature oven-fried chicken with giblet gravy, parsley-butter potatoes and peas with mushrooms.

ORANGE - PINEAPPLE juice, molded cranberry salad, Finnish rolls, chocolate fudge pudding with whipped cream or orange slices will complement the meal. Guest meal tickets may be purchased in the food supervisor's office in the dining halls.

If the parents like music, they may go to the concert presented by the Men's Glee Club at 3 p.m. in Schwab. The 80-voice Glee Club, directed by Frank Gullo, will sing "Hallelujah Chorus" by Beethoven, "Song of the Open Road," "Laudamus."

The Glee Club's Varsity Quartette will present a program of selected numbers, and Robert Froberg, junior in chemical engineering from Ridgeway, will sing the baritone solo "Yours Is My Heart Alone."

The Army, Navy and Air Force ROTC drill teams will compete in standard and trick drill events for the President Walker Cup at 2 p.m. in Beaver Stadium.

THE TEAMS competed in the Cherry Blossom Festival in Washington recently and have placed first in various Army, Navy and Air Force drill competitions this year.

Mrs. Violet Haywood Walker, mother of University President Dr. Eric A. Walker, will be honored as the Mother of the Day at the competition.

Also in the afternoon, parents are invited to teas and receptions or skits in most of the sorority suites. Women's residence hall areas are also sponsoring teas during the afternoon.

Both men's and women's residence halls will have open houses from noon to 5 p.m. tomorrow. During this time, doors to the rooms are to be kept open unless there is no one inside.

If Mom and Dad want to know who the campus scholars are, they may attend the Honors Assembly at 3 p.m. in the Hertz Union ballroom. Tickets are available at the HUB desk. A reception in the HUB lounge will follow the presentations.

Mortar Board, senior women's honorary society, Chimes and Scrolls, junior and senior women's hat societies respectively, will tap new members.

Phi Kappa Phi, scholastic honorary society for juniors and seniors, Alpha Lambda Delta, freshmen women's scholastic honorary society, Phi Beta Kappa and Cwens hat society will recognize their new members.

Mortar Board scholars and the recipients of the Education Student Council scholarship and outstanding senior award will be named.
