

Finch Named Prof Snarf in WUS-Sponsored Contest

Henry A. Finch, professor of philosophy, was named Prof Snarf Saturday afternoon during the International Folk Festival, Olga Seastrom, campus co-chairman of World University Service, said yesterday.

Mrs. Finch accepted the award for her husband, who is recovering from a stroke in the Centre County Hospital.

Miss Seastrom said that at the folk festival recognition was also given to Atherton for collecting the most money of all residence areas during the year for WUS and to Town Independent Men for contributing the most money in the WUS-sponsored Penny Mile Contest.

Retired Crop Production Professor Dies at 81

Clinton Otis Cromer, retired professor of crop production, died at 6 p.m. Saturday in the Centre County Hospital. He was 81 years old.

He joined the University faculty in 1921 and served as professor of crop production until his retirement in 1946. He is survived by his wife and two daughters, Mrs. F. D. Wertz Jr. of West Hartford, Conn., and Mrs. W. E. Kenney Jr. of Nyack, N.Y., and four grandchildren. There will be no public visitation.
