

IT'S ALL OVER: Penn State's Jim Baker (right) and Whit Gray demonstrate the form that carried them to convincing wins over Bucknell's Jeff Nemerov and Don Warren yesterday on the varsity courts. The rest of the netmen followed suit as State downed the Bisons, 9-0, for their third victory of the season.

Netmen Trounce Bisons, 9-0, For Third Victory

By KEN DENLINGER

The Penn State tennis team, with a surprising display of power, crushed Bucknell, 9-0, yesterday in a rain-interrupted match on the varsity courts.

Yesterday's victory does not mean, however, that the Lions are ready to challenge Australia for the Davis Cup because this year's Bison squad is woefully lacking in talent.

"THIS IS ONE of the poorest squads in all my seventeen years of coaching," Bison coach Henry Peters said. "And to make matters worse, our number one singles player, Mike Nachwalter, is in the hospital having his appendix removed."

Nachwalter, appendix and all, would have found it tough to beat anyone on the Lion squad. It seemed that no matter where the Bison hit the ball, a State man was there to return it. Only one match in the entire contest went

Clay Predicts Fast Knockout

NEW YORK (AP) — Cassius Clay, the Louisville heavyweight who is as proud of his success as a prophet as he is of his unbroken string of ring victories, looked his next opponent squarely in the eyes yesterday and said: "Daniels, you'll fall in five rounds."

Billy Daniels, a 6-foot-4, 190-pound New Yorker, smiled faintly and then retorted: "If I fall, it'll be because somebody tripped me."

This bit of byplay took place at a boxing luncheon at which the two unbeaten heavyweights, Clay and Daniels, were featured guests. They clash at St. Nick's here Saturday in a nationally-televised 10-round.

as far as three sets, with Csaba Balazs easing by Bob Heuman, 7-5, 2-6, 6-4, in the number four singles position.

Captain Jim Baker started the rout with a 8-6, 6-2 win over Bison sophomore Jeff Nemerov. Peters was quick to praise the play of the Lion senior.

"Baker's one of the best players I've seen in quite awhile," the Bison mentor said. "I'm glad he'll be graduating."

WHIT GRAY and Alan Isaacman swept by Don Warren and Pete Kaplan by scores of 6-0, 7-5 and 6-2, 6-2, respectively.

Balazs ended a six-match losing streak with his win over Heuman in number four.

Senior Don Benner, substituting for Steve Seitchik in the number five spot, put on quite a show in downing Bruce Topman, 6-1, 6-4. Benner had the Bison sophomore running all over the court trying to stop his accurate placements.

If the Bison's Maung Khin's shots were as hard to stop as his name is to pronounce, John Coldren would have been in trouble. The Lion senior, however, experienced no difficulty in either score as he bested Khin by a 6-1, 6-2 count and proceeded to give the correct pronunciation of his opponent's name to all interested bystanders.

THE LION NETTERS fared just as well in doubles as they swept all three matches in straight sets. Baker and Gray demonstrated the Lions' dominance of the entire contest in the final set of their doubles match against Nemerov and Warren.

With the score at match point, Nemerov lobbed a shot to Baker. The Lion captain promptly whistled a smash past Warren. Warren watched the ball go by and walked dejectedly off the court.

Singles
Baker (PS) def. Nemerov, 8-6, 6-2.

Musial Ties Hit Record, But Giants Top Cards

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Stan Musial tied the National League career hit record yesterday but league-leading San Francisco unleashed its power in a five-run seventh inning and belted his St. Louis Cardinals, 7-2.

The 41-year-old Cardinal outfielder singled sharply to right center off winning pitcher Juan Marichal in the sixth inning for his 3,430th hit, tying Honus Wagner's standard.

Lions Seek 9th Win At Bucknell Today

By JOHN MORRIS

The Penn State baseball team travels to Bucknell this afternoon to take on the Bisons in what stacks up as a "must" game for Joe Bedenk's Lions.

The Nittanies (8-2) must win today's game and probably both games at Pitt Saturday to stay in contention for a District 2 playoff bid. The district selection committee meets in Scranton Monday to pick four teams for the playoffs.

"The committee takes into consideration how many games you've left field; Pete Liske, first base; played," Bedenk said yesterday. "We need all the games — and pitcher."

The Lions humiliated the Bisons, 25-6, on Beaver Field earlier this season, but Bedenk is fearful of a Bucknell uprising today.

"They have improved a great deal," the Lion coach said. "This could be one of our toughest games."

The Bisons could make things rough today if the Nittanies are over-confident. They have won five out of their last six home games, including wins over Syracuse and Delaware.

Bedenk will go with either righthander Marlin Biesecker (2-0) or lefthander Bob Fenton (6-0) this afternoon. Biesecker is the likely starter, but Fenton may split the job with him so both men will be able to pitch at Pitt Saturday.

Pitt is 9-4 on the season and rates as one of the Nittanies' top competitors for the playoffs.

BEDENK WILL probably go with the same lineup today that he used in the first game of the Lions' double sweep of Syracuse Saturday.

Center fielder Dick Pae will lead off, followed by Don Robinson, second base; Fred Light, third base; John Phillips, shortstop; Dick Anderson, right field; Don Jonas, catcher; Roger Kochman,
