New Cage Scandals

NEW YORK (AP)—The basketball "fix" scandals flared anew yesterday with the arrest of Jack Molinas, 30, former Columbia University star, on charges of heading a "ring" that corrupted college games.

The alleged conspiracy involved 22 players at 12 colleges, in an attempt to fix 25 contests.

Molinas, an attorney, played professionally for a time after his college career but then was barred by the National Basketball Association.

He pleaded innocent in General Sessions and was released in $5,000 bail. No trial date was set.
