

FIRST PEACE CORPS GROUP GRADUATES: Sept. 14 was the big day for the 152 members of the Peace Corps who were the first group to graduate after training at the University. Carlos Romulo, center, Philippine ambassador to the United States, was the main speaker at graduation exercises. Miss Marjorie Pfankuch, a Peace Corps member, receives the token diploma from Harris Wofford, special assistant to President Kennedy.

SUCCESSFUL SEASON ENDS: The locker room in Pitt Stadium was the scene of this celebration when the Lions defeated the Panthers 47-28 and ended the season of 7-3. Two days later the Nittany bid to the Gator Bowl to meet

1961-62

FROSH TAKE A BOW: Bowing in front of Old Willow on the Mall was just part of the customs period which the incoming freshmen took part in the first two weeks of classes in the fall. Of course, there were the dinks, namecards and handbooks.

RESULTS OF 30-15 GATOR BOWL VICTORY . . . Rip Engle, Galen Hall hold the trophies

The school but its memo There were e duplicated.

For freshmen However, three Peace Corps been graduate

On Monday shocked when Secretary-General killed in an mission to the Following down with two usual fuss over There were d vacation which versity shifted

The term as Albert Die business adm its name to team beat Pi Bowl

A victory ville set the ternity and with formal

Two major

STUFFING FAD HITS CAMPUS: In early November, the stuffing fad hit campus. Many a dormitory room was packed and each group claimed a new record. Phi Kappa Psi fraternity tried something different, however, as 38 men crowded in a 6 cubic-yard Dempster Dumpster.

LOST CAUSE: The eyes of the country were focused on an abandoned clay mine near Osceola Mills for nearly two weeks as searchers hunted for two lost boys. Their bodies were found under a rockslide in Ernest Lowe, father of one of as rescuers go about their work the Nittany Grotto assisted