420 Seniors Join Alumni Association

About 420 of the 1,800. June graduates have joined the Penn State Alumni Association, Ross B. Lehman, assistant executive secretary of the Alumni Association, said yesterday.

Those seniors who have not already joined, about 75 per cent of the 1962 class, will be contacted again by the alumni office, Lehman said.

Brochures and letters will be mailed to the newest graduated seniors in September, he said. Those who join the association will receive the alumni magazine, published seven times a year, the quarterly alumni newspaper, called "The Penn Stater" and Ridge Riley's Football Letter, issued after each football game.

Cost for one year's membership are $3 and for a lifetime membership, $70.
