

Four Lion Stickmen Make All-Star Team

By KEN DENLINGER
Sports Editor

Four members of the 1962 Penn State lacrosse team have been named to first team berths on the Pennsylvania-Delaware Lacrosse Association All-Star squad.

Goalie Vinnie Tedesco, defenseman Andy Lockhart, midfielder Tom Hayes and attackman John Meisel were named to the first unit with midfielder Lou Meier and attackman Dick Seelig nominated for the second team.

The Lions, with four, led in total representatives to the first team. Penn. followed with three.

STATE CAPTURED the Middle Atlantic Conference championship and the Penn-Del crown with 4-0 records in both leagues enroute to their best record (7-3) since 1946.

Tedesco handled the net chores for the Nittanians in fine fashion, especially in the Lions 18-13 win over Rutgers. Time after time the sophomore saved what appeared to be certain goals.

Lion captain Lockhart was the defensive specialist. His rugged play earned him a spot on north squad in the annual North-South game held at Rutgers on June 9 and an All-America nomination from his coach, Dick Penck.

While Lockhart was noted for his defensive ability, Hayes bore the brunt of the scoring. The junior midfielder led the offense with 27 goals and set a new State one-game scoring record for his position when he tallied eight goals in the Rutgers game. Hayes was only one goal short of the all-time scoring record of nine set by Bill Hess against Penn in 1957. He, too, was nominated by Penck for All-America honors.

MEISEL ONLY scored six goals this year for the stickmen but was among the nation's lead-up honors to Hayes in scoring in assists with 40, many of them to Hayes.

Co-captain Meiser complemented Hayes at the midfield position. He scored two important goals against Rutgers, insuring the Lions' first victory over a Scarlet team.

The other half of the Lions' potent one-two attack punch was Dick Seelig. Seelig took runner-up honors to Hayes in scoring for the second year in a row.

State has some promising young stickmen and, with the likes of Tedesco and Hayes returning next year, could better that 7-3 record considerably.

Garibaldi Signs Giants Contract For $150,000

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Bob Garibaldi, a towering right-handed collegiate pitcher, signed with the San Francisco Giants yesterday for an estimated $150,000. The Giants plan to start him in mid-July.

The poised 20-year-old University of Santa Clara sophomore basketball and baseball star had been the most eagerly sought prospect after being named most valuable player last month at the NCAA World Series.

"I HAD ONE or two higher offers," the 6-foot-5 Garibaldi said at a news conference announcing his signing.

Garibaldi, who has a blazing fast ball and a good curve, said he picked the Giants because "they have one of the strongest hitting clubs" and are just 80 miles from his home at Stockton, Calif.

Neither Garibaldi nor Horace Stoneman, president of the Giants, would comment on the terms. But Stoneman admitted "it's the largest bonus we've ever offered a young man."

Garibaldi quickly gained attention this spring with a no-hit, no-run victory over perennial West Coast baseball powerhouse Southern California. The next time he faced the same team, he added six more no-hit innings before retiring with a minor injury.

Anderson Captures Slugging Honors

Captain-elect Dick Anderson led the 1962 Lion baseball team in two categories and tied for the lead in two more.

The first baseman-outfielder took top honors in triples (2) and runs batted in (13). He tied with outfielder Roger Kochman and third baseman Fred Light for the home run leadership with two and pitcher Bob Fenton for the most sacrifices with three. He did this despite a .250 batting average.

Secondsacker Don Robinson captured the stolen base crown with six and led the team in doubles with seven.

Shortstop John Phillips took top honors in the batting department with a lusty .388 average, topping the team in hits with 19. Phillips also committed the most errors (18).

Lefty Bob Fenton led the pitchers in practically every department. His most notable achievements were a 1.42 earned run average and 70 strikeouts in 76 1/3 innings of pitching.

Coach Former Pitcher

Chuck Medlar, Penn State's head football trainer and pitching coach, hurled for the Nittany Lions baseball team as an undergraduate and later for Buffalo of the International League.

Mitinger, Saul, Smith Outstanding In All-America Football Bowl Game

A trio of Penn State football players played vital roles in the second annual All-America Football Bowl held last Friday in Buffalo.

All-America end Bob Mitinger, center Bill Saul and tackle Jim Smith played both offense and defense for Woody Hayes' East squad, which defeated the West by a 13-8 score.

Mitinger, who will play for the San Diego Chargers in the American Football League next season, spent a good part of the evening in the West's backfield but not by invitation.

The Associated Press heaped praise on the terminal stalwart. "He continually harrassed the West's quarterbacks, including Minnesota's Sandy Stephens, and was largely responsible for hurrying passes and disrupting the West plays," the AP said.

Mitinger's defensive efforts drew praise from rival coaches throughout the 1961 season. In fact, California coach Marv Levy went so far as to call him "the best college football player in the United States."

Saul, second draft choice of the Baltimore Colts (NFL), alternated with Jay Huffman at the center spot for Rip Engle's 1962 Gator Bowl champs.

Smith, in addition to playing both ways, was the messenger for the Easterners. The 1961 Lion captain has signed with the Los Angeles Rams of the NFL.

McCoy Heads League

Russians Defeat American Oarsmen in Three Races

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Russia's powerful rowers captured the July 4th spirit of the United States yesterday, defeating America's oarsmen in all three special international races in the Schuylkill River regatta.

The Soviets won the singles and doubles sculls over two other entries and swept to an easy triumph in the eight-oar shells against five competing American crews.

DESPITE OBVIOUS disappointment, a crowd estimated by Police Commissioner Albert Brown at over 45,000 roared approval as the grinning Russian athletes accepted their medals with the USSR national anthem blaring over the loudspeaker.

The distance in all the races was 2,000 meters, the official Olympic route which is slightly over a mile and a quarter.

Russia's Vyacheslav Ivanov, a slender but muscular oarsman who won the Olympic singles crown in 1956 and 1960, took his specialty by two lengths in the comparatively slow time of 7 minutes 40.9 seconds.

In the doubles, Ivanov and Yuri Tyukalov won by a length in 6:58.

RUSSIA'S VICTORY in the eights was the most impressive, crossing the sun-drenched finish line in 6:09.8, about 2 1/2 lengths ahead of Vesper's eight oarsmen and coxswain. Vesper's time was 6:14.4, considered disappointing since in a trial race Sunday it covered the distance in 5:53 though aided by some wind.
