Saturday

Cosmopolitan Club

Members of the Cosmopolitan Club interested in the group's overnight hike along the Loyalsock Trail Saturday and Sunday may sign up at the HUB desk. The club is also planning a ping pong tournament from Saturday through July 31. Interested members may sign up in the HUB.

Square Dance

A square dance will be held from 9 to 12 p.m. in the HUB ballroom. The caller explains the dance patterns. There is no admission charge.

Sunday Chapel

The Rev. Trevor Watt of Sydney, Australia, will be the speaker at the 9 a.m. service at the Eisenhower Chapel. His topic will be "Love and Reconciliation."

Rev. Watt is a young pastor and seminary teacher who was formerly an advertising man.

The summer term choir, under the direction of James W. Beach, will sing "Unto Thee, O God, do we give thanks" by Alan Hovhanness.

Ray Zeigler, organist for this service, will play "Chorale Prelude on Hyfrydol" and "Rhosymedre" by Ralph Vaughan Williams plus "Postlude" in "G" by Richard Purvis.

Concert

The summer band, under the direction of James W. Dunlop, will present a concert at 7 p.m. on the Pattee Library steps. A trumpet trio will be featured.

Exhibit

An exhibit of painting by the students of Hobson Pittman, noted American artist who is teaching painting at the University for his 31st summer, will open in the HUB gallery at 9 p.m.

Although this exhibit will be composed largely of oil paintings, other media will be represented, including water colors and collages.

Of the exhibiting students, many are former students of Pittman who have returned to campus again to paint under his direction.

The exhibit, which will include portraits, still lifes and landscapes done this summer, will be judged by two juries and 10 awards made.

Lecture

Harold Clurman, theatre critic, producer and director, will speak at 8 p.m. in the HUB ballroom. His lecture will be on "Contemporary Theatre Trends" and is open to the public with no admission charge.

Clurman has served as critic of the arts for "Tomorrow Magazine," theatre critic for the "New Republic" and since 1953 has been theatre critic for "The Nation."

Monday Student Sing

A student sing will be held at 8 p.m. in Schwab. Hummel Fishburn and Frank Gullo of the music department will lead the group singing.
