

THIS WEEK ON CAMPUS

Today Band Concert

The Summer Band under the direction of James W. Dunlop will present a concert at 8 p.m. in Schwab.

The band consists of high school students, enrolled for the Band, Orchestra and Chorus School, as well as undergraduate and graduate students.

James D. Grant, of Williston Park, N.Y., enrolled in the BOC School, will be soloist for Romanza from Concerto No. 3 in E flat by Wolfgang Mozart, arranged by Robert J. Bardeen.

Drama

"All the King's Men" by Robert Penn Warren will continue through Saturday at Mateer Playhouse at Standing Stone. Curtain is 8:40 p.m.

The play has been adapted by Warren from his Pulitzer Prize winning novel of the same name. It is a portrait of Willie Stark, a political dictator in a Southern state.

Terence Rattigan's "Separate Tables" continues at Boal Barn Playhouse in Boalsburg through Saturday. Curtain is 8:30 p.m.

The play is a drama in the apparently quiet backwater of a residential hotel in England. Reservations may be obtained by calling AD 7-7867.

Lectures

Leonide Goldstein, research professor in the New Jersey Neuropsychiatric Institute at Princeton, will speak to the participants of the NDEA Summer Language Institute at 8 p.m. in the Eisenhower Chapel. Goldstein's topic will be "Les contributions de la France aux connaissances scientifiques."

The lecture is open to the public.

An informal lecture on the Mormon Church and its adherents will be presented at 7:30 p.m. in 212 Hetzel Union. Owen Rich, graduate student in speech education, will be the speaker. His talk is entitled "A Distinctive Church — A Distinctive People."

The lecture is open to the public.

Softball

The lecture is open to the public.

Movie

"To Catch a Thief" starring Grace Kelly and Cary Grant will be shown at 9 p.m. on the lawn area south of the HUB. In case of rain, the movie will be presented in Recreation Hall.

Other Events

Co-recreation swimming, 8-9:30 p.m., Glennland Pool.
Interlandia Folk Dance, 7:30 p.m., 302 Engineering "D". Instruction in folk dances will be provided.

Saturday Sports Car Rallye

A Sports Car Rallye sponsored by the Penn State Sports Car Club will be held at 1:30 p.m. Interested persons should meet in parking lot 94. All types of cars are eligible to run.

Square Dance

A square dance will be held from 9 to 12 p.m. in the HUB ballroom. The caller will explain the dance patterns. There is no admission charge.

Sunday Chapel

Thomas Iwand, assistant professor of economics, will be the speaker at the 9 a.m. service in the Eisenhower Chapel. His topic will be "Let God be God."

The summer term choir, under the direction of James W. Beach, will sing "O God be merciful" by Christopher Tye.

Leonard Rayer, chapel organist, will play "Plain chant and Fugue on Kyrie eleison," "Offertoire sur les Grands jeux" and "Dialogue," all by Francois Couperin.

Graduate Newman Club

Richard B. Gidez, instructor in English, will speak to the Graduate Newman Club at 7:45 p.m. at the Eisenhower Chapel lounge. His topic will be "Three Religious Plays from Broadway."

Monday Bridge

Duplicate bridge will be played at 7 p.m. every Monday in the HUB cardroom.

Lecture

Rustum Roy, professor of geochemistry, will give an after-dinner talk at 6:45 p.m. in Pollock Dining Hall lounge. His topic will be "Is There a Philosophy of Western Civilization?" The talk is sponsored by the AWS Summer Council.

Tuesday Drama

"Send Me No Flowers" by Norman Barash and Carroll Moore opens at Mateer Playhouse at Standing Stone.

The whimsical comedy revolves around George Kimball, the typical suburbanite—solid commuter, citizen and husband—who has the untypical hobby of hypochondria.

A 50-cent discount is given to students at performances Tuesday through Thursday.

The play will run through Aug. 18.

Wednesday Drama

"The Tender Trap" by Max Shulman and Robert Paul Smith opens at Boal Barn Playhouse in Boalsburg.

The play is a comedy about the problems of an eligible bachelor who believes in safety in numbers. The play will run through Aug. 18.

Performances will be given Wednesday through Saturday evenings.

International Film

"Dreams That Money Can't Buy" will be shown at 7 and 9 p.m. in the HUB assembly hall as this week's international film. Tickets cost 50 cents and are available at the HUB desk.
