

Top Elevens Set to Open Nittany Basketballers Announce Schedule for 1962-63 Campaign

By The Associated Press
 The 1962 college football season zooms off the launching pad today with all the thrust that can be mustered by having eight of the nation's top ten teams in action, topped by a possible Rose Bowl preview between Purdue's Boilermakers and the Washington Huskies.

Only Ohio State, figured the No. 1 team in The Associated Press' pre-season poll, and its Big Ten rival Michigan State (No. 4) will be idle this weekend. Both get down to business next Saturday. A dozen or more new head coaches will get their baptism of fire, including Louisiana State's Charlie McClendon, Paul Dietzel at Army, Hank Foldberg at Texas A&M, Charlie Bradshaw at Kentucky, Bud Davis at Colorado and Lloyd Eaton at Wyoming. The baptism doesn't end there, either. Texas' Longhorns, rated

No. 2, are at home to Oregon State in a night game and their Southwest Conference aspirations will get a solid test from the Webfoots' well-balanced attack.

So will Alabama's defending national champions, ranked No. 3. Bear Bryant's Crimson Tide takes on tough Georgia in a night game at home, minus some of the stars of their 10-0 1961 season.

McClendon's LSU Tigers (No. 5) also open under the lights at home against Foldberg's Aggies, while the Duke Blue Devils, favored to repeat as Atlantic Coast Conference champs, are in Los Angeles to play the University of Southern California in a nationally televised game.

Purdue (No. 7) and Washington (No. 6) could have the day's biggest battle. The Boilermakers have an all-veteran team — one that missed by only 10 points of turning three losses into a 9-0 record in 1961.

The Huskies, figured to battle with Southern California for the Big Six' Rose Bowl berth, have speedster Charlie (The Missile)

Mitchell operating behind a big veteran line and backed by fullback Jim Stiger.

Quarterback Mel Renfro and tackle Steve Barnett will put Texas to a severe test, but the Longhorns still have fullback Ray Poage and halfback Jerry Cook as returning offensive guns.

Bama lost fullback Mike Frachia for the year with a knee injury, but Bryant's men are favored to overwhelm Georgia.

In top action in the South, Southern Methodist travels to Maryland, sixth ranked-Mississippi plays Memphis State at night, Florida faces Mississippi State at night, Georgia Tech is host to Clemson and North Carolina and North Carolina State meet.

Eighteen games plus a holiday tournament are scheduled for Penn State's basketball squad this season.

Coach John Egli's 1962-63 edition will play eight games at home, 10 on the road, and on Dec. 28 and 29 will compete with Miami of Ohio, Marshall, and Morris Harvey in the first Alpine Tournament at Charleston, West Va.

The Lions will open their campaign Dec. 1 at Maryland and on Dec. 4 will play at Lehigh. On Dec. 8 they'll entertain Syracuse in the first of their eight home games. Other home opponents are Colgate, Pittsburgh, Temple, Bucknell, Carnegie Tech, West Virginia, and Rutgers.

The schedule: Dec. 1, at Maryland; 4, at Lehigh; 8, Syracuse; 11, Colgate; 22, Pittsburgh; 28-29, Alpine Tournament; Jan. 5, Temple; 8, at Bucknell; 11, at Colgate; 12, at Syracuse; 16, at West Virginia; 28, Bucknell; 31, Carnegie Tech; Feb. 9, at Navy; 12, at Gettysburg; 16, at Army; 20, West Virginia; 23, at Pittsburgh; March 2, Rutgers.

Lion-Army Game on TV
 The Penn. State-Army football game at West Point's Michie Stadium Oct. 13 will be televised in the East as part of the NCAA-CBS series.

Fresh Soccer Meeting
 The first meeting for all candidates for the freshman soccer team will be held Monday at 7 p.m. in 114 Rec Hall.
