

REPORTER, Rochelle Michaels, interviews USG President Dean Wharton for a news article. After the interview, she writes her story and gives it to the City Editor who checks its content and assigns the story a place in the paper. The article is then given to the News Editor who checks it for style and spelling before sending it to the shop to be set in lead. A headline is written from the carbon of the story.

HERB WITMER AND ANN PALMER, business manager and editor, discuss the next day's issue. They plan, coordinate and direct the publication of the Collegian. They are assisted in their work by the other members of the editorial and managerial boards who direct different phases of the overall operation.

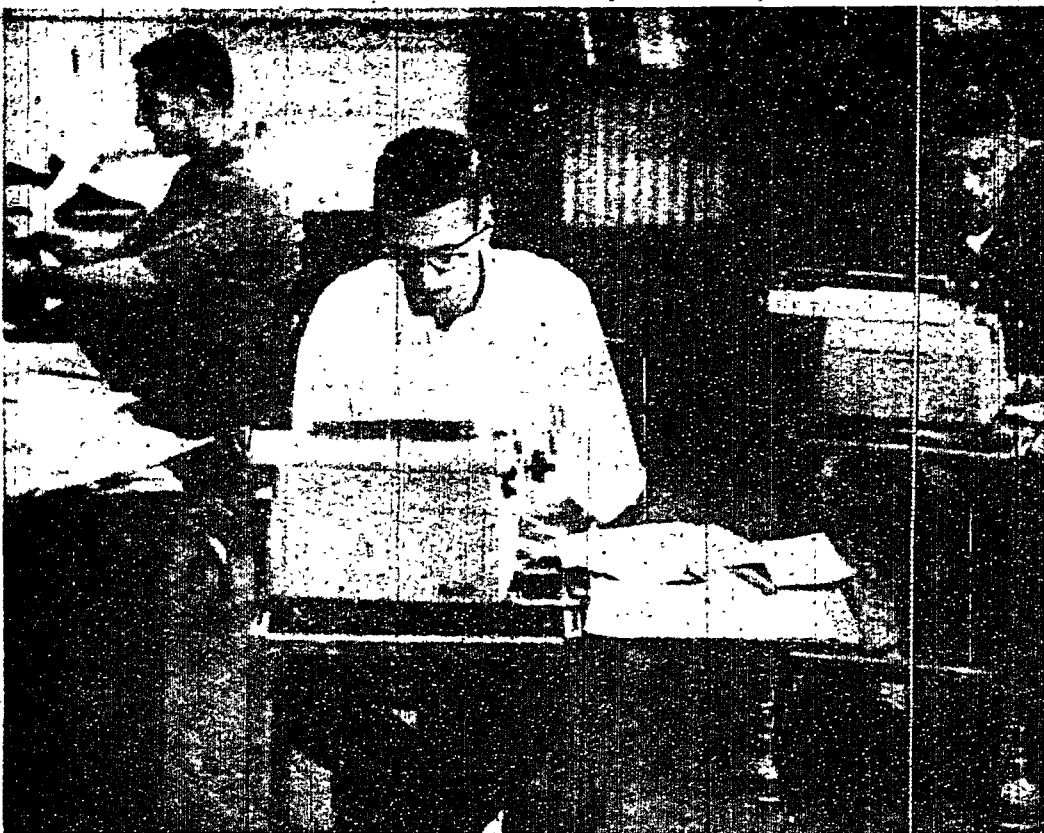

A CLASSIFIED AD IS TAKEN by Pris Spring, ad staff member, from John Schiffgens (graduate student—nuclear engineering—New Kensington). Staff members also solicit ads from local merchants and national companies, design, lay-out and write ad copy.

OPERATION: The

Collegian Photos by De

MANY POSITIONS ARE AVAILABLE on the staff of The Daily Collegian. Students interested in filling the empty places in the office should attend the open house at 6:30 tonight in 128 Sackett. Actually the Collegian office is seldom this deserted as the business staff operates during the morning hours and the editorial staff takes over at night. Neither is the area a

SPORTS EDITOR John Morris and other members of his staff prepare copy for the Collegian sports pages. People on the sports staff cover a wide variety of varsity and intramural athletics, including football, soccer, basketball, wrestling, gymnastics, track, lacrosse and baseball.

COLLEGIAN
OPEN HOUSE
TONIGHT
6:30 P.M.
128 SACKETT

CO-PHOTO EDITOR Den Coleman over the shoulders of co-chairmen, taking pictures, the photography staff, and engravings which are used on the paper.