

Rice Gains 6-6 Tie With LSU

By KEN DENLINGER

A 30-yard screen pass from sophomore quarterback Walter McReynolds to Gene Fleming led underdog Rice to a 6-6 tie with LSU and set the stage for an aerial circus with the Lions this Saturday in Houston.

Unable to move on the ground against a stout Bengal defense (the Owls gained only 34 yards rushing) McReynolds, a six-foot sharpshooter from Galveston, took matters into his own hands and completed 13 of 23 passes for 179 yards.

NAVY 20, WILLIAM & MARY 16—The Middies rebounded from last week's 41-7 pounding by the Lions with a come-from-behind win over William & Mary. A 77-yard fourth period drive with Pat Donnelly carrying over from the four saved face for the Navy.

John Sai scored on a four-yard carry and snared a 25-yard toss from Ron Klemick to set up another tally.

ARMY 8, SYRACUSE 2—Paul Dietzel's charges were penalized 100 yards in this contest but the defense, led by right end Bill Chescavage, held the Orange to a disputed safety.

The Syracuse safety came when Army left half Ken Waldrop fielded a punt standing close to his own goal line. He was hit immediately by Eugene Stancin. Army claimed that Stancin threw Waldrop into the end zone, but the safety remained.

WEST VIRGINIA 14, VPI 0—Another outstanding performance by Jerry Yost and a stout Mountie defense carried West Virginia to their second straight shutout victory of the season. The junior quarterback scooted 56 yards for a score in the first period and tossed a 28 yard pass to end Milt Clegg for the final TD.

HOLY CROSS 16, BUFFALO 6—Holy Cross threw away scoring opportunities on two fumbles and an interception, but recovered in time for the win. Quarterback Pat McCarthy scored from the one and passed for two twin-point conversions.

MARYLAND 13, WAKE FOREST 2—Quarterback Dick Shiner supplied the arm and halfback Ken Chiavernini the leg work as the Terps remained unbeaten. Shiner passed 36 yards to Tom Brown for a first period score and Chiavernini scampered nine yards for a third quarter TD. A host of Wake Forest tacklers nailed Shiner in this own end zone for their first period safety.

PITT 24, BAYLOR 14—Rick Leeson ran six yards for one score, kicked a 26-yard field goal and three extra points to lead the Panther point parade. Pitt never trailed as they racked up two second period scores and added 10 more points in the third. Quarterback Fred Mazurek passed two yards to Bill Howley for one score and halfback Paul Martha wheeled 18 yards for the final TD.

Mazurek broke his thumb in the contest and may miss the California game this week.

CALIFORNIA 25, SAN JOSE 8—Quarterback Randy Gold tossed three touchdown passes to lead the Bears to their first win of the season.

Reflections of Telstar

Remember the picture above? It flashed across your television screen on a hot night last July. Perhaps you remember that it originated from France. And that it reached the U.S. via Telstar, the world's first private enterprise communications satellite.

Since that summer night, the Bell System's Telstar has relayed electronic signals of many types—television broadcasts, telephone calls, news photographs, and others.

But there's one Telstar reflection you might have missed. Look into the faces of the Bell System people below and you'll see it. It is the reflection of Telstar's success that glowed brightly on the faces of all who shared in the project.

Their engineering, administrative and operations skills created Telstar and are bringing its benefits down out of the clouds to your living room.

These Bell System people, through their talented, dedicated efforts, make your phone service still better, more economical, and more useful.

The reflections of Telstar are many.
