

Undergraduates May Apply for Scholarships

A large number of undergraduate scholarships are now available to all students who have completed at least one term of study at any of the University campuses.

Most of these are awarded on the basis of superior performance, field of study, financial need and campus activities, Ralph N. Kreckler, director of student aid, said recently. They vary widely in amount and will be available to the recipients for the 1963-64 academic year.

Applications for the scholarships may be obtained at the Office of Student Aid, 218 Willard, or from the deans of student affairs at the Commonwealth campuses.

Completed forms must be returned to the office from which they were obtained by Jan. 18, 1963. Because of required signatures and recommendations which must be submitted with the forms, students are urged to secure the forms early during this term, Kreckler said.

WHAT KIND OF MAN HANDLES A BUSINESS VENTURE BEST?

A midwestern college audience recently heard this answer in a talk by A.T. & T. Board Chairman, Frederick R. Kappel

"To us this is an important question because we hire nearly 3000 college graduates yearly. To get an answer we went to our own files and examined the records of nearly 17,000 people. We checked each man's comparative success against what he achieved in college.

"As a group, the scholars won handily. Of the men who stood among the top third in salary for their level of experience, more than half were also in the top third of their college class. Only a quarter were in the bottom third.

"And contrary to age-old beliefs, extracurricular activities proved a lesser indicator unless the individual had an outstanding achievement. Mere 'joining' was not enough.

"The study indicates, at least as far as the Bell System goes, that there's little opportunity for college students who practice 'diplomaship'—the belief that a diploma automatically leads to job success. Such thinking will not make telephone service what we know it can be.

"The men we want are men with intelligence plus those other attributes that give you the feel, the sense that they will make things move and move well—men who want to excel and are determined to work at it.

"Nothing short of excellence will do."
