

Phi Delta Theta Defeats SAM by 6-2, In Quest of Second Straight IM Title

By ED CARPENTER

Phi Delta Theta, in an attempt to repeat last year's achievement of winning the fraternity intramural football crown, defeated Sigma Alpha Mu, 6-2, last night as the second week of IM football began.

Sammy scored first on a two point safety as Phi Delt's quarterback, Skip Valone was tagged in his end zone by Bill Brody.

This two point spread was sufficient until the seven minute mark of the first half when Valone hit Scott Henderson on a 38-yard scoring play. The combination culminated a three play, 44-yard march by Phi Delt.

Phi Gamma Delta, runner-up to Phi Delta Theta in last year's tournament, also made their season's debut a successful one, defeating Pi Lambda Phi, 14-0.

Phi Gam scored the first touchdown in the early moments of the game on a three-yard pass from quarterback John First to Chic Harte. The play highlighted a 55 yard drive during which First threw six passes—four to Harte and one each to Larry Wert and Burke Jackson. The PAT was made by Wert and the score remained 7-0 until midway through the second half.

Phi Gam's Chris Mader then intercepted a pass and raced to the 30. Four plays later First spotted Harte in the end zone and fired an 18-yard pass that the leaping Harte snagged. The point after was converted by Wert.

In the most lopsided fraternity game, Lambda Chi Alpha trounced Delta Phi, 17-0.

The scoring was headed by fleet-footed Bob Fleming who teamed up with quarterback Elmer Praul on scoring pass plays of 60 and 30 yards.

In other fraternity action Chi Phi scored an early touchdown on a 25-yard pass play from Bob Bevon to Gregg Duvall to defeat Alpha Chi Rho, 6-0; Phi Kappa Theta got a first period safety for a 2-0 victory over Alpha Kappa Lambda and Phi Kappa Sigma defeated Tau Kappa Epsilon, 1-0.

In independent action the Untouchables trounced the Newman Club, 15-0; Rejects shutout the M Fers, 14-0; Rats defeated Coal Crackers, 13-6; Sportsmen beat Old Men 6-0; Wops upended the Lucky Lucies, 6-0; Sleepers whitewashed the 122 Terrors, 24-0; Watts bumped Lucky 13, 6-0; Bad Guys edged the Touchdowners, 1-0 on first downs; and the Navy Bluedevils outlasted the Panthers, 6-0, in overtime.

LeBaron Pass Leader

NEW YORK (AP)—Little Eddie LeBaron of the Dallas Cowboys has taken over the individual passing lead in the National Football League. The latest statistics released by the league show that the 169-pound LeBaron has completed 44 of 70 passes for 659 yards and five touchdowns. He also leads in percentage of completions.

Taylor Heads Rushers

NEW YORK (AP)—Jim Taylor of Green Bay still holds the rushing lead in the National Football League over five-time champion Jimmy Brown of Cleveland. In four games, Taylor has gained 418 yards on 77 carries, while Brown has amassed 331 yards on 67 rushes.
