

Booters Hope to Extend Supremacy Over Colgate

By IRA MILLER

Colgate will provide the opposition tomorrow when State's soccer team plays its 1962 home opener. The Lions lost, 3-1, to West Chester in their first game last week.

The Red Raiders, who've lost 18 of 20 previous engagements with State, stand 1-1-1 on the season.

Lion coach Ken Hosterman plans a couple of lineup shifts in an effort to get his offense jelling. George Berzkalns and Al Jacobsen will be on the starting line at center and right wing, respectively. Hosterman also plans to give goalie Stu Ross a chance to display his wares in tomorrow's game. Al Shuss manned the nets in the opener.

Colgate, coached by Mark Randall, was 6-5 last season but one of the setbacks was a 4-3 loss to State at Hamilton, N.Y. The Red Raiders had brought a perfect slate (3-0) into that game.

John Arons will be in goal for Colgate with Tom Wycall and Dave Borton at the fullback slots and Pete Wilkinson, Pete Wake-man and Al Chagan at the half-backs.

Berzkalns, who scored State's lone goal in last week's contest, will replace John Katona at center, while Jacobsen, a sophomore who has looked impressive in practice, takes over Al Schatt-schneider's slot.

The Lions have been plagued by injuries but all hands are expected to be ready to play tomorrow.

Val Djurdjevic, starting inside right, has a bruised instep. Tom Flanagan, starting inside right, has a bruised thigh. Katona has an infected leg.

"This game won't be any easier than last week's," Hosterman said yesterday. "They're a good, aggressive team and we're going to have to be able to move the ball if we're going to score. If we start playing with it, they'll take it right away."

Ross has never played in a collegiate soccer game. But neither had Shuss before last Saturday's fray when he was forced to stop 25 shots while only three got by him. Ross was the leading candidate to start during most of the pre-season practice campaign but Shuss got the starting nod for his fine work during the week preceding the opener.

Liston 'Not Afraid to Testify,' But Won't Appear in NY Probe

NEW YORK (AP) — Heavy-weight champion Sonny Liston did not appear yesterday at a public hearing of the New York State Legislative Committee which is investigating professional boxing.

Liston, through his attorney Morton Witkin, said in Philadelphia Tuesday that he wasn't afraid to testify but that he would not appear.

In a telegram, Witkin said Liston never had any conversation with New York heavyweight Cortez Stewart and had not authorized anyone to speak to Stewart.

Stewart testified before the committee on Oct. 2 that racketeer Frank (Blinky) Palermo had tried to hire him in Philadelphia to be a sparring partner for Liston. That was last April when Liston was training for his Sept. 25 title fight with champion Floyd Patterson. Stewart said he refused when the promised pay was lowered.

Palermo was described last year by the Kefauver committee as a member of an underworld syndicate that controlled Liston.

The committee adjourned without setting a date for the resumption of the hearings.
