

Bandits Stop Lions

The Lions, ranked third in the nation before the game, drew first blood on a 35-yard field goal by Ron Coates. The score, coming with 3:39 left in the first period, was set up by Pete Liske's 26-yard pass interception return.

It took Army just two minutes and ten seconds to tie the score on a 35-yard boot by Dick Heydt, the same man who kicked a field goal to help beat State 10-6 last year.

ARMY PUNTER Dick Peterson kept the Lions backed up to their goal line for the better part of the second period, but the Army offense wasn't making any serious assaults on Lion scoring territory.

The Nittanians seemed to be rejuvenated as the second half opened.

Taking the kickoff, they marched down to the Army seven-yard line on the running of fullback Dave Hayes and the passing combination of Liske to halfback Junior Powell.

The Lion offensive machine sputtered and stalled at that point though and Coates trotted on the field to attempt another field goal. The Bandits blocked the kick.

STATE STARTED another drive the next time it got the ball, but a 13-yard touchdown pass from Coates to end Bill Bowes was nullified by an off-sides penalty and the Lions settled for a 13-yard field goal by Coates.

The fourth quarter opened with Peterson punting out of bounds on the Lions' 14-yard line.

The Nittanians had two substantial gains wiped out by penalties and then came Army's chance.

Powell, ripping through the left side of the Army line, lost the ball and Bandit tackle Tom Kerns fell on the loose pigskin.

THE NITTANIES rose to the occasion and held Army's offensive unit to three yards in three plays, but then Dietzel's daring paid off.

He ordered quarterback Cammy Lewis to try for the touchdown. Lewis responded with a perfect pass up the middle to Peterson, who backed over the goal line with the touchdown that smashed the Lions' hopes.

After the kickoff, State moved 37 yards to the Army 38-yard line, but the Bandits stiffened to stop Buddy Torris inches short of a first down.

The Lions regained the ball again with about a minute and a half remaining, but the Bandits held again.

After two premature invasions of the playing area by the boys in gray, Lewis sat down with the ball to run out the clock.

Pierce Stops Yanks; 7th Game Set Today

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Billy Pierce returned to his happy hunting ground at Candlestick Park yesterday and squared the World Series for the San Francisco Giants with a 5-2 victory over the New York Yankees in the sixth game.

Pierce, unbeaten at home with a 12-0 regular season record in this park, had lusty aid from Giants bats which knocked out Whitey Ford in the fifth inning.

Orlando Cepeda snapped out of a horrible 0-for-12 batting slump with three straight hits and drove in two Giants runs in the nine-hit attack on Ford.

THE FIRST 13 Yanks were retired in order by Pierce and some of the 43,948 fans began to recall Don Larsen's perfect game of 1956 until Roger Maris slammed his fourth Series home run over the right field fence.

Pierce, a stylish 35-year-old workman with a long American League background, had a one-hitter going until the eighth when Clete Boyer doubled with one out and scored on Tony Kubek's single that just eluded a diving Harvey Kuenn in soggy left field.

This sixth game, postponed three days because of heavy rains and an unplayable field, was contested on a damp, soft outfield that had been dried before the game by three helicopters swooping low with their whirling blades.

With the 59th Series all squared at three games each, it will be Jack Sanford (24-7) for the Giants against Ralph Terry (23-12) in today's seventh game battle of right-handed pitchers. About $4,000 will be hanging in the balance on each pitch, because each winner will get about $12,000 and each loser about $8,000.

Pierce's three-hitter was a magnificent job. Rested seven days after losing the third game 3-2, the veteran was in real danger only once. That was in the fifth after the homer. A two-base error by Jim Davenport and a walk to Clete Boyer on an intentional fourth ball, put men on first and second with two out.

RALPH HOUK, Yankee manager, chose to stick with Ford as his batter and passed up a chance for a pitch hitter. Ford popped up and the Yanks' one and only big chance was over.

As it turned out, Houk left himself open to the usual second guessers, for Ford went out and was racked up for two more runs and chased in the fifth.

Ford had skirted disaster in the early innings, getting out of trouble with the help of double plays in the first and second, but ran into a problem in the fourth.

With one out in the fourth, Felipe Alou singled on a hot shot off Boyer's glove that rolled to deep shortstop. Ford worked carefully on Willie Mays, his old nemesis, and finally walked him on a 3-1 count.

Cepeda, who had broken his hitless string with a single in the second, was at bat when Ford suddenly wheeled and tried to pick Alou off second base. Ford hesitated in the midst of his throw when he saw the Yanks were late covering, and finally threw into right center.

ALOU SCORED easily on the error, with Mays taking third. Cepeda then doubled to right center, scoring Mays, and scored himself on Davenport's ground single into center field.

Once again there was one out when the Giants struck in the fifth. This time it was Harvey Kuenn, hitless in 10 trips in the Series, who finally broke out of it with a single to left. Chuck Hiller dropped a single into center field that fell dead on the soggy turf. Felipe Alou's single to left drove in Kuenn with the Giants' fourth run, bringing up Mays.

Houk left Ford pitch to Mays. Ford justified his faith by getting Willie on a foul pop to Moose Skowron. When Cepeda followed with a single to center, driving in Hiller, Houk decided Ford was finished. Jim Coates mopped up for 2½ innings and Marshall Bridges finished the job without further damage.

Beating Ford gave the Giants a terrific boost, for the chunky little lefty had won more World Series games (10) than any other pitcher and had beaten them in the opener, 6-2.
