

Orange Win First Game; Cross-Country Squad Wins Second, 17-46

By KEN DENLINGER
Syracuse, after two baseball-score defeats, rebounded into the win column with a 12-0 victory over previously unbeaten Boston College last Saturday at Syracuse.

Quarterback Wally Mahle, playing his first varsity game for the Orange, scored on a 10-yard dash in the opening series of plays and later thrilled the 31,000 Parents' Day fans by scooting over from the 20-yard stripe with seven seconds remaining in the game.

The Orange, beaten, 7-3, by Oklahoma, and 9-2, by Army, put up a stout defense that thwarted all scoring attempts by BC. The Eagles' only real threat, in the third period, fished when a Jack Concannon pass from the Orange 18 was dropped in the end zone.

Mahle, inserted into the Syracuse lineup to bolster a lacking offense through the first two games, led all rushers with 101 yards in 16 carries.

NAVY 41, CORNELL 0 — Disappointed with the showing thus far of his "veteran" players, Navy coach Wayne Hardin loaded his playing units with sophomores and juniors. The move payed off to the tune of the most convincing win thus far for the Middies.

Leading the point parade for Navy was soph quarterback Roger Staubach, who scored two TD's and set up two more with accurate tosses to end Ed Merino.

HOLY CROSS 14, HARVARD 20 — Quarterback Pat McCarthy accounted for 26 points as the Crusaders won their third straight game. McCarthy passed 51 yards to Al Snyder for one score, 15 yards to Tom Hennessey for another and tallied twice himself. He also whipped a strike to Snyder for a two point conversion.

The only score McCarthy was not directly responsible for was an eight yard scamper by fellow Irishman Hennessey. However, McCarthy did call the play and make the handoff.

MARYLAND 21, NORTH CAROLINA 13 — Unbeaten Maryland used the airlines to rack up an impressive win over the Tar Heels. Piloted by Dick Shiner, the Terps scored from over-head twice and converted NC fumbles into two more TD's.

Shiner, senior quarterback from Lebanon, Pa., threw scoring strikes to halfback Tom Brown and end Ernie Arizzi. He also scored himself on a five-yard jaunt in the first quarter.

The Terps journey to Florida this week to put their unbeaten string on the line against Miami. This shapes up to be an aerial dual between Shiner and Miami's George Mira.

AIR FORCE 20, ARIZONA 6 — The Falcons won their third game in four outings by besting an Arizona team still recovering from the physical beating it took at Missouri the week before.

OREGON 31, RICE 12 — Rice has yet to get into the win column and seems to get worse at each outing. The Owls shocked LSU with a 6-6 tie three weeks, and had State coach Rip Engle worried for most of the next game, but their famed defense fell apart as

Gymnastics Managers

Mel Renfro and his playmates ran at will.

DUKE 21, CALIFORNIA 7 — The Bears are feeling the loss of quarterback Randy Gold, injured in the Pitt game, and their offense has been sputtering. Duke followed an impressive win over Florida with an equally stout performance in a game played under the lights at Berkeley.

WEST VIRGINIA 15, PITT 8 — The Mounties were finally scored upon but Jerry Yost led a fourth quarter surge that pulled West Virginia out of trouble. Steve Berzansky tallied first for the Mounties, who played in cautiously by allowing Glenn Bennett to kick for the lone extra point.

Pitt then followed with a 34-yard run by Paul Martha and a two point conversion on a pass from Jim Traficant to Gene Sobolewski.

Tom Woodeshick's 49-yard sprint late in the fourth period saved the day for the Mounties. Following a Pitt punt that rolled dead on the W.Va. 8, Woodeshick ran up the left sidelines after Yost had tossed two short gainers to end Gene Hetter for the Panther nine. Tom Yeater scored from the two with Hetter adding two points on a toss from Yost.

Freshmen Booters Face Lock Haven

Coach Walt Weiland's freshman booters open a four game schedule this afternoon when they entertain Lock Haven on the field adjacent to the Ice Skating Pavilion.

Coach Weiland has been putting his charges through workouts for the past two weeks and still is not set with a starting lineup. Last year's edition of the frosh Lions tallied an undefeated slate in four starts.

Among the freshmen who reported for drills are two candidates from Iraq and one from Turkey, Uruguay and Ecuador, "which just goes to show that soccer is an international sport," Weiland explains.

State's cross-country team swept the first three places at Cornell Saturday and won its second meet without a loss, 17-46.

Lion runners Howie Deardorff and Colin Grant broke the tape together after completing the 5 1/16 mile course in 27:53.5 minutes. Dick Lampman of State finished third in 28:02.5 minutes.

Lion coach John Lucas said yesterday that the team ran very well over the soggy course at Ithaca, N.Y., which had been soaked with torrential rains on Thursday and Friday.

"We are constantly improving," Lucas explained. "I'm particularly pleased with the progress of Lionel Bassett and Joe Nichols."

Breaking the tape first for the Big Red but in fourth place was junior James Howie Deardorff Sims. James Byard, another Cornell junior, was Sims' nearest helper but finished ninth.

THE SCORE was a point improvement over last week's opening day win at Pitt where the Lion barriers mauled the Panthers, 18-43.

Saturday, however, a powerful

Michigan State contingent spilled the Panthers, 15-45—a perfect score.

Now the Spartans, who dethroned the Nittanies as ICAA champs last year at Van Cortland Park, N.Y., visit State this Saturday for a "grudge match."

State's freshman harriers, also fired up following a victory over the Pitt cubs, continued winning by promenade over the little "Big Red", 27-30.

Bassett and Nichols, both lettermen who received praise from coach Lucas following laudable running in the Pitt meet finished fifth and sixth.

The pair was followed by Ted Inswiler in seventh and Jim Young in tenth for the Lions.

The Lion freshmen copped their meet despite losing the first two places to Cornell runners.

The Nittanies will continue their workouts this week to prepare for the "big one" against Michigan State Saturday. Last year the Spartans eked out a 27-28 victory over the Lions to mar State's bid for an undefeated season with one loss against four victories.

"I won't have to get the boys enthused about this meet," coach Lucas said. "The mere fact that Michigan State is coming to town is enough."
