

Booters Score Too Little, Too Late; Red Raiders Spoil Opener, 5-2

By IRA MILLER

Defensive lapses and the lack of a "take-charge" offense cost Penn State's soccer team its second game of the season Saturday. The winless Nittanies fell before Colgate, 5-2, in their home opener.

The Red Raiders scored the first five goals of the contest and the fourth quarter was half over by the time State finally broke into the scoring column. Last week, too, the Lions scored their only goal against West Chester after the Rams had completed their scoring for the day.

"This team is not that bad," Lion coach Ken Hosterman claimed yesterday while shaking his head over losses in two games he thinks his team should have won.

"We looked good at times. These kids really want to win. They've got the desire. But for some reason we just can't seem to get together out there."

Val Djurdjevic

Hosterman gave Stu Ross a chance as the Lions' starting goalie. He lasted just long enough to yield two first period goals before being yanked at the 8:10 mark. Al Shuss then came in and slammed the door on the visitors until they poured through three third-period scores.

ROSS MADE four saves while he was in the game and Shuss turned aside 17 shots for a total of 21 stops by the two Lion net-minders. Meanwhile, Colgate goalie John Arons was forced to stop just seven shots.

"The offense wasn't taking charge and there was more pressure on the defense because of it," Hosterman said. "They should be taking control when we have the ball, but they weren't. Some changes are going to have to be made to get this offense moving."

Tom Harrison and Ron Glenn were Colgate's offensive stick-outs. Harrison scored the first goal, Glenn tallied the second and each later added an assist.

Val Djurdjevic and Ted Jones were State's scorers, their goals coming within three minutes of each other in the fourth period. Djurdjevic scored on an assist from John Katona at 9:15 and at 12:00 Jones booted in a rebound on a shot by Djurdjevic.

Harrison scored an unassisted goal at 7:15 of the opener and Glenn followed suit 55 seconds later. At this point, Hosterman decided he'd seen enough of Ross for the day ("Although it wasn't entirely his fault," he said. "The defense was sloppy.") and in went Shuss. And that was all the scoring for the first half.

PETE SWEET converted a pass from Harrison at 2:25 of the third and Colgate was in front 3-0. Less than five minutes later Roger Case, a second-string fullback, scored unassisted. Jim Petric completed Colgate's scoring at the 16:00 mark on a pass from Glenn.

Then the Lions came in with their two-goal output but once more it was not nearly enough.

This was only the third time in 21 meetings between the teams that Colgate has come out on top, but all their triumphs have come since 1959.

State goes on the road again this Saturday, meeting Maryland at College Park.

Colgate 5 0 3 0-5
Penn State 0 0 0 2-2
Goals: Colgate—Harrison, Glenn, Sweet, Case, Petric. Penn State—Djurdjevic, Jones, Saves—Arons (C) 7, Ross (PS) 4, Shuss (PS) 17. Shuss replaced Ross at 8:10 of first period.

Two Penn State teams — the 1947 and 1961 editions — have won the Lambert Trophy, symbolic of Eastern football supremacy.

Longhorns Take Over First; Lions Fall to 14th in AP Poll

By The Associated Press

The Texas Longhorns nudged Alabama's Crimson Tide out of the No. 1 spot in the Associated Press' weekly poll of college football teams today. Texas became the third team to hold a shaky lead in the weekly ratings. Alabama had replaced Ohio State the week before.

Coach Darrell Royal's Longhorns, second in last week's poll, won its fourth straight game Saturday by edging Oklahoma 9-6, while Alabama also won its fourth in a row. Alabama had its troubles before downing Houston, 14-3. A week before, Mississippi had crushed Houston 40-7.

Two teams dropped clear out of the top ten—PENN STATE and Purdue. PENN STATE, No. 3 last week, was beaten by Army, 9-6, while little Miami of Ohio humbled Purdue 10-7. Purdue was No. 9 a week ago.

Northwestern and Wisconsin crashed into the ratings, taking over the No. 8 and No. 10 spots, respectively. Wisconsin defeated

Notre Dame 17-8, while Northwestern rolled over Minnesota 34-22.

Southern California, idle Saturday, advanced from fourth to third place, while Louisiana State hopped from sixth to fourth after beating Miami of Florida 17-3.

The top ten, based on a 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 point system with first place votes in parenthesis:
