

Lion Booters Work On Offensive Play

By IRA MILLER

Aggressiveness will be the key theme of Penn State's soccer practices this week as the Lion booters prepare for Saturday's game with Maryland at College Park.

"We have to work on making the first play, on taking the opportunities, in short on being more aggressive," coach Ken Hosterman said yesterday.

In both their games to date, the Lions have been beaten to the punch. They've lost to West Chester, 3-1, and to Colgate, 5-2.

"They should be making their first choice of plays instead of waiting around and being forced to settle for a second choice," he continued. "You just don't have that much time. While we're waiting for the ball to come to us, we're being beaten to it."

"WE CAN'T let them keep beating us to the ball, and this is what we have to work on this week. And we have a lot of work to do on it."

Hosterman indicated that there were some lineup changes to be made this week, but he hasn't decided just where they'll be.

One possible spot is in goal, although Al Shuss is still number one there. Hosterman gave Stu Ross a starting shot Saturday against Colgate and before the first period was half over, the Red Raiders had two goals and Shuss was in the game.

A third man has joined the battle for the goalie's berth, though.

Jay Robbins, a junior, joined the team Monday and Hosterman was impressed by his work in practice Monday and yesterday.

"HE'S GOT real good hands and looks good in there," Hosterman said. "All he needs is some work to get his timing and get the feel of being in there."

But, at least for the present, Shuss remains the Lions' top net-minder. He's turned aside 42 shots in the two games while allowing six to elude him.

Injuries have hit the Lions again and captain Jay Stormer is on the doubtful list for Saturday's contest with the Terps. He starts at left halfback.

Stormer suffered knee and shoulder injuries against Colgate. Another visit today to team determine his status for this week's clash.

State will probably need all the defense it can muster against Maryland, for the Terps are one of the top offensive teams the Nittanians will see all year. Last season Maryland scored 49 goals in 11 games, compared to 38 in 14 for national champ West Chester (and 17 in 9 for the Lions).

Hosterman doesn't think that all State's woes are due to the defense, though, and that's why he's stressing the offense in practice.

"If we would get to the ball first the pressure would be taken off the defense and we wouldn't have to worry about it," he said. "We have to remove the pressure by keeping ourselves alert."

Detroit Selected To Bid for Games

CHICAGO (AP) — Detroit, unsuccessful in three previous attempts to host the Olympics, was selected yesterday to bid for the 1968 summer games against mounting international competition.

Detroit and Lake Placid, N.Y., desiring the 1968 winter games, were certified by the U.S. Olympic Committee board of directors to bid for the 1968 games at the International Olympic Committee meeting in Nairobi, Kenya, Oct. 12, 1963.

Although the United States has not been host to the summer Games since 1932, when Los Angeles was the site, U.S. Olympic officials felt the international bloc will be difficult to overcome. Lake Placid's chances for the winter Games appeared dim because the 1960 Games were held in Squaw Valley, Calif.

Detroit won over Los Angeles, San Francisco, Philadelphia and Portland. The only bid against Lake Placid came from Salt Lake City.

K. L. (Tug) Wilson, president of the U.S. Olympic Committee, said Detroit was chosen by the board of directors "after a very lengthy, wearing discussion." Wilson lavished praise on the other presentations although it was indicated that the final vote was between Detroit and Los Angeles.

Phi Kappa Sig Tops Defending IM Champs

By STEVE FRANKLIN

The IM football fields had all the atmosphere of Michie Stadium last night as upset-minded Phi Kappa Sigma tripped defending champion Phi Delta Theta on first downs, 4-3, before a noisy crowd.

Sparked by the passing combination of Jim Terry to Larry Gaertner, the Phi Kaps marched down the field several times to be stopped just short of a touchdown.

Meanwhile the Phi Kap defense — led by Bob Peace, Jay English and Don Jameson — was limiting the Phi Deltas to short passes and short gains.

Phi Gamma Delta had its hands full, before edging Lambda Chi Alpha, 3-2, on Larry Wert's field goal. LCA scored its only points on a safety as time ran out.

Tau Kappa Epsilon walloped Phi Kappa Theta, 29-14, in another game played on the golf course fields.

Ken Denlinger grabbed two Mike Soccio aeriels for touchdowns to spark the TKE romp. Bob Bartlett chipped in with a pass interception return for a touchdown, plus two other interceptions that set up TKE scores.

Soccio added two PATs and one field goal. He scored once himself on a pass interception runback.

TKE rolled up a 26-0 lead in the first half. Phi Kappa Theta fought back in the second half with a TD pass from John Zabbatta to Tom Jolatz. Phi Kappa Theta scored again with a few seconds to go as Zabbatta intercepted a pass by Soccio and romped over for the final score.

Chi Phi won a passing duel over Pi Lambda Phi, 14-0. While an alert defensive backfield was stopping the Pi Lambda Phi offense, Chi Phi quarterback Bob Bevan connected with Gregg Duval for one touchdown and scored one himself later. Tony Felice kicked the points after both touchdowns.

Delta Phi eked out a close 4-3 win on first downs over Alpha Chi Rho. Delta Phi quarterback Jim Schultz brought his team close to scoring but never close enough.

Oakland Releases Head Coach; Rams May Replace Waterfield

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — Marty Feldman was released yesterday as head coach of the Oakland Raiders of the American Football League.

The announcement, by General Manager Wes Fry, said Feldman is being succeeded by William (Red) Conkright who has been on the staff as defensive line coach and has acted as director of player personnel for the Raiders.

Also released was Tom Kalmanir, offensive backfield coach. The rest of the staff, which includes offensive line coach Ollie Spencer and defensive backfield coach Walt Michaels, have been retained, pending a decision by Conkright.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Owners of the winless Los Angeles Rams are considering replacing head coach Bob Waterfield, the Los Angeles Herald-Examiner said yesterday in a copyrighted story.

There was no comment from the club's owners on the story.

Waterfield, rated the club's greatest all-round quarterback in his playing days, is in his third year of a 5-year contract.

The Rams have lost five games — two by 3 points, one by 4, one by 6 and one by 10.

Frosh Booters Debut

State's freshman soccer team makes its debut today when coach Walt Weiland's booters entertain Lock Haven at 3:30 at the field adjacent the Ice Skating Pavilion.

Fashion Fad Column
While walking down College Ave. the other day, I was reminded of the ever growing size of the town. Two new buildings are now having the finishing touches put to them at the campus shopping center. One of the stores, Hur's Traditional Shop, is a strictly ivy league men's store. More than this, though, it's our store — yours and mine.
When I entered the shop, I had no idea that I would feel this way. At first, all I did was browse through the sport shirts and sweaters. Then Wayne, the manager of the shop, offered to show me their sport coats and suits. No fooling, it really felt great to be treated in this manner. To me, I was more than a customer to Wayne — I was a friend.
Getting back to the suits though, I became especially interested in one. It was an olive and black herring bone. Wayne then pointed out some of the finer points that the suit had to offer: a hand-blocked shoulder for the better fit in front and back, the hand-felted collar which lasts longer and guarantees no fraying around the collar.
I could expound on the finer points of this quality suit for quite a bit longer. But what I would really like you to do though is to go down and see it for yourself. Remember, it's your store, and at the very least your going to make a new friend in Wayne whether or not you buy anything.
Sincerely,
Bob
