

Frosh Gridders Threaten, Army, Pitt, W. Va. But Lose to Orange, 14-6 Score Narrow Wins

By FRANK QUIGLEY
"Close, but not close enough" was the cry of the Penn State freshman football team as it was defeated, 14-6, by the Orangemen of Syracuse Saturday on Old Beaver Field.

The Lion cubs penetrated to the visitor's one-yard line twice in the second quarter, but were unable to score. Both times they were thrown for a loss at fourth down.

Syracuse opened the scoring in the first quarter on a one-yard scoring plunge by right halfback Charlie Brown. After an exchange of punts, State quarterback Dick Gingrich fumbled on the State 15 and Syracuse recovered.

The Orange then moved down to the one where Brown bulled over for the score. Roger Smith added the extra point.

In the second quarter, the Lions advanced to the Syracuse 40, but Syracuse held and State had to punt. Ross Adams, reserve quarterback, punted out of bounds on the Syracuse three-yard line. The Nittanies held and Syracuse punted on third down.

IT WAS here that Penn State's scoring frustrations began. Bob Shiffler returned the punt to the Syracuse 28. Shiffler, Bill Huber, and Bob Riggle carried the ball to the Syracuse eight where it was first down and goal to go. But Syracuse rose to the occasion and stopped Huber on fourth down on the two-yard line.

Syracuse punted again and Shiffler returned to the Orange 27. A pass from Adams to end Rod Nixon put the ball on the eight where it again was first and goal to go. But the Syracuse line stiffened and dropped halfback Don Kunit for a loss on the five to stymie State's second threat.

The half ended with Syracuse leading 7-0.

State kicked off to open the second half and on the first play from scrimmage, Penn State right end Ellery Seitz recovered a Syracuse fumble on the 36.

After advancing to the Syracuse 23 on the ground, Gingrich completely fooled the defense by taking to the air. He found Dave McNaughton all alone on the 10 and the big halfback romped over unmolested for the score. Jack Boye's attempt for the extra point was low and wide to the right.

BROWN COMPLETED the scoring for Syracuse on a three yard plunge in the fourth quarter. Adams attempted to punt from his own goal line, but the kick was deflected and the ball rolled out of bounds on the State 30. The Orange then moved down to the three to set up Brown's scoring plunge. Smith again added the extra point.

Coach Earl Bruce was quite satisfied with the performance of his team. "We have seldom played so well and lost," said the wily grid mentor.

Bruce praised the play of the Lion forward wall and singled out the play of Gingrich, Shiffler, Seitz and McNaughton as outstanding.

End Dick Nikolishen suffered a head injury in the first quarter and will be lost for the rest of the season. He is being detained at Geisinger Memorial Hospital in Bellefonte for observation.

Penn State will travel to Pitt Saturday for its next game.

The Army cheering section drew a reprimand from a general last Saturday, but its football team hung to a 20-12 decision over a battling VPI squad.

Following a 15-yard first-quarter penalty, the cadets began to shout, "To hell with Tech, to hell with Tech."

The academy superintendent decided that this was not the way, for our future military leaders to act and immediately called the head cheerleader to his private box for a chat.

THE CHANT subsided, but the Cadet offense did not as Dick Peterson banged over from the four for one touchdown. Kent Woodbury caught a Cammy Lewis pass for another and Ken Waldrop capped a 60-yard march with a one-yard plunge for the final Army TD.

But VPI proved more dangerous than the 22-point per-game spread indicated.

Precision-armed Pete Cartwright passed for two scores and spearheaded two fourth quarter threats that were stopped by the Chinese Bandits.

WEST VIRGINIA 27, GEORGE WASHINGTON 25 — The Mounties blew a three touchdown lead but came from behind to top GW in a Southern Conference game.

Three plays after Jerry Yost had heaved a 56-yard aerial to halfback Tom Woodeshick, fullback Glenn Holton bulled his way over from five yards out for the winning tally.

NAVY 28, BOSTON COLLEGE 6 — Mike Krekich, a 220-pound guard, intercepted a third period BC aerial and lumbered 39 yards to set up the Middies' second score and ignite a scoring spree that produced two other quick scores.

Pat Donnelly ran for the touchdown following Krekich's interception and scored on a 22-yard pass from Nick Staubach.

OREGON 35, AIR FORCE 20 — The Webfoots ruined the Air Force Academy's dedication of their new stadium by scoring two third period TD's that broke the backs of a fighting Falcon squad.

Dick Imwalle scored the go-ahead touchdown on a 33-yard pass from Mel Renfro and Larry Hill applied the clincher with a 49-yard scamper three minutes later.

MIAMI 28, MARYLAND 24 — A total of 33 passes were completed by Miami's George Mira and the Terps' Dick Shiner with Mira's 21 completions in 31 attempts leading the Hurricanes to the win.

DICK SHINER

Maryland's Tom Brown thrilled the Friday night Miami crowd with a 98-yard touchdown run.

SMU 15, RICE 7 — The Mustangs snapped a winless streak that stretched back to midseason of 1961. Tommy Brennen caught the all-important two point conversion following SMU's first score and skirted left end from six yards out for the clincher.

DARTMOUTH 10, HOLY CROSS 0 — Tom Spangenberg ran back an intercepted pass for 98 yards for Dartmouth's victory over perviously unbeaten Holy Cross. Bill Wellstead added a 32-yard field goal.

PITT 8, UCLA 6 — A high pass from center on an extra point attempt led to a desperation pass from holder Jim Trafficant to kicker Rick Leeson for the Panthers' margin of victory. Paul Martha set up the winning conversion with a six-yard scoring dash.

USC 32, CALIFORNIA 6 — The Bears seem to be scoring less and giving up more points as the season progresses. Two weeks ago Duke romped over them by 21-7. This must change if they are going to put up any resistance against the Lions this Saturday.

Terry, Mahaffey Gopher Ball Kings

NEW YORK (AP) — Ralph Terry of the New York Yankees and Art Mahaffey of the Philadelphia Phillies yielded the most home runs among major league pitchers in 1962, figures compiled by The Associated Press disclosed yesterday.

Terry, the World Series hero, gave up 40 homers in the regular season to lead the American League. Mahaffey was the National League's gopher ball pacesetter with 36. Both are right-handers.

Terry's total was three short of the American League record set by Pedro Ramos with Washington in 1957. Ralph worked 299 innings while winning 23 games and losing 12.

Terry permitted two homers, to Willie McCovey and Jose Pagan of the Giants, during the Series. He won two games in the post-season competition, including a 1-0 shutout in the seventh and deciding game.

In the regular campaign, the Detroit Tigers were Terry's chief tormentors. They walloped nine home runs off his deliveries.

Among the individuals, Rocky Colavito of the Tigers took a particular liking to the Yankee star's offerings. He tagged Terry for three homers.

The New York Mets and Milwaukee Braves found Mahaffey an easy home run mark. They each hit eight circuit blows off the Phillies' pitcher's serves. Frank Thomas of the Mets and Eddie Mathews of the Braves had three homers apiece off Mahaffey.

Anderson 2-Sport Star

Dick Anderson, State's starting left end, is captain-elect of the Nittany Lion's baseball squad for next spring. He's an outfielder.

Long Drought for Terps

Maryland's 1961 football victory over Penn State was its first in the eight games played since the series started in 1917.
