

Last Quarter Rally Gives Kappa Win

By WINNIE BOYLE

In a last quarter rally, Kappa Gamma sorority squeezed by Delta Delta Delta sorority, 6-2, last night in the third annual Powder Puff Bowl.

Beth (Cannonball) Callahan pulled in the winning touchdown pass from quarterback Sue (Formidable) Finch.

THE CONTEST was played before about 200 near-frostbitten fans who seemed to care more about how much time was left in the game than who was winning it.

Tri-Delt dominated the first half with a very successful air attack. They scored their only tally late in the second quarter when they were forced to punt by a fired-up Kappa line. The punt went into the end zone, and when a Kappa back tried to run it out, she was hit by a host of Tri-Delts for a safety.

At halftime referee Tom Paton gave his opinions of the contest to that point.

He described the Tri-Delt quarterback, Penny Power, as having that certain quarterback instinct: "She knows when to keep the ball and when to pass it," he said.

The contest was a battle between "Tri-Delts' speedier backs and Kappa's heavier line," Paton said.

The outstanding pass receiver for the Tri-Delts was Evy (Kangaroo) Koeblin, who more than once made an amazing catch while being double-teamed.

The most outstanding running back for the Kappas was Betty (Frown) McCown who ran to the left and ran to the right after good handoffs from Kappa quarterback Sue Finch.

THE GAME ended with the Kappas in possession deep in their own territory in a fourth down situation.

The Kappas were coached by Phi Gamma Delta fraternity and the Tri-Delts learned their gridiron tricks from Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity.
