

Booters Face Middies Today

By IRA MILLER

Penn State's soccer team will try to retain its newly-found winning touch this afternoon when it meets an undefeated Navy squad at Annapolis.

The Lions defeated Bucknell, 3-0, Tuesday for their first win after three losses this season. Navy is 4-0 and hasn't lost in 11 games since bowing to West Chester, 5-0, last October.

State will be without the services of inside left Ed Hinojosa, who is suffering from an injured knee. Hinojosa inherited the starting berth by default earlier this week when Tom Flanagan dropped out of school to join the Army.

State's chances for an upset today depend on whether they are able to play their type game or are forced into playing Navy's game.

"We have to get Navy off its charging game and make them play our game," Hosterman said.

"We won't beat them at their game."

Honker will make his first appearance of the season in today's game. Hosterman inserted him in the lineup hoping that he'll continue the fine play he has shown in practices this week.

Jay Robbins will be in the nets again today, starting his third straight game for the Lions. Robbins joined the team just 12 days ago.

Bill Manke and Link will start at the fullbacks, with captain Jay Stormer, Dieter Heinz and Harry Kline at the halfbacks.

The Lion line will show Ted Jones and John Katona at the wings and Berzkals, Honker and Val Djurdjevic inside.

Navy coach Glenn Warner has won 110 games against only 42 losses and 19 ties in his 17 seasons at Annapolis but has never enjoyed much success against State. Last year's 3-1 triumph marked only the fifth time in Warner's regime that the Middies had beaten the Lions.

Snow May Halt Man O' War Stakes

NEW YORK (AP) — Carry Back and Kelso are scheduled to renew their horse-of-the-year duel today in the $100,000-added Man O' War Stakes at Belmont Park but a sudden early winter storm left the infield grass course blanketed with a couple of inches of wet snow and caused some concern.

In addition to Mrs. Katherine Price's Carry Back and Mrs. Richard C. duPont's Kelso, 11 others were entered for the 1 1/4-mile battle that closed the fall Belmont season.

There was special concern over the status of Carry Back, the 1961 Kentucky Derby winner, who is to be retired to the stud after this season.

"We put him in the race to run and have all intention of doing so if there is nothing wrong with the footing tomorrow," said Jack Price, who trains Carry Back for his wife.

Kelso is the 4-5 favorite off his 10-length victory last Saturday in the $100,000 Jockey Gold Cup at 2 miles. Carry Back, who hasn't raced since the Arc de Triomphe Oct. 7, is second choice at 5-1.
