

Undefeated Middie Soccermen Hand Lions Fourth Loss, 3-0

By IRA MILLER

Penn State's soccer team came up with its best performance of the season Saturday at Annapolis, but it just wasn't enough as the Lions bowed to an undefeated Navy squad, 3-0.

State suffered its fourth loss in five outings and now must win all four remaining games to escape a fourth successive losing season. The Lions still must face Temple, Army, Gettysburg and Pitt. The Middies, who beat West Chester's defending national champs last week, are 5-0.

Karl Kaesar, a third team All-American inside right, proved to be the difference between the teams.

Kaesar, a junior from Oak Park, Ill., scored one goal and assisted on the other two. Last year, he was the nation's leading college scorer with 24 goals in 11 games.

Until the final six minutes of Saturday's game, just one disputed goal separated the squads.

KAESAR SCORED it at the 4:17 mark of the second quarter. He rifled a shot which Nittany goalie Jay Robbins deflected. Lion fullback Mickey Mastil came in to clear the ball and both sides continued play. But the officials stopped play and ruled that the ball had crossed the goal line. Mastil and the rest of the Lions argued that the ball hadn't gone in the nets, but the protest was to no avail. This goal was the only scoring until the closing minutes of play.

At the 16-minute mark of the fourth quarter, Navy right wing Jim Checkett took a pass from Kaesar behind the Lion defense and beat Robbins with a shot from just in front of the net. An interception by Kaesar set it up.

Navy scored its final goal with five seconds left in the game. Checkett again scored on a pass from Kaesar about 20 feet from the nets.

Lion coach Ken Hosterman, displeased with State's lack of offensive punch, nevertheless thought it was the Lions' best game this year.

"It was our best game defensively, even though we shut out Bucknell last week. We handled Navy's offense pretty well," he said.

BOTH TEAMS had scoring chances after the Middies' first goal, but neither side cashed in until those last few minutes.

John Katona came within inches of a goal when his shot sailed over the crossbar. Val Djurdjevic and Ted Jones also saw good scoring opportunities flutter away. Navy goalie Paul Tobin made a fine save to deprive Dieter Heinze of a second period score.

Hosterman shook up the Lion lineup for this game, but it was to no avail.

Goals—Kaesar, Checkett 2. Saves—Tobin (N) 7, Robbins (PS) 11.

DU Captures League G Crown

A combination of a 35-0 Delta Upsilon victory over Alpha Epsilon Pi and a stunning upset by Pi Kappa Phi over Theta Chi, 6-0, clinched the league G championship for DU as the IM football season moved into its final week of regulation play.

DU's scoring barrage was led by Fred Light, who caught two Ed Giegucz areials for touchdowns. Giegucz also threw TD passes to Dick Frick, Ken Staub and Den German. The five PATs were made by Bob Mascoll.

They were aided in their fight for the title by Pi Kappa Phi, which had previously won only one game this season. The winners got their touchdown in the final two minutes of play on a 20-yard runback of an interception by Gary Schaffner.

In other fraternity action, Delta Tau Delta took over first place in their league by defeating Alpha Sigma Phi, 2-0. Phi Sigma Delta pulled the second upset of the evening by defeating Alpha Zeta, 19-0. Alpha Tau Omega's Rod Aspinwall intercepted a pass and raced 60 yards in helping his team defeat Phi Kappa Psi, 7-0. Sigma Nu scored a first down in the final minute of play to defeat Triangle, 5-4 on first downs.
