

Thespians to Open New Season With Grove's 'Razzle McDazzle'

The devious ways of an Irish leprechaun who visits a college campus will be the subject of the Thespians' first production of the year, "Razzle McDazzle."

An original work by Ellis Grove, former instructor in theater arts, the musical comedy will be presented tomorrow through Saturday at 8 p.m.

Music for the comedy was written by Grove and Ray Fortunato, personnel service director.

Tickets for the show may be purchased at the Hetzel Union desk.

JEFFREY MOSS (1st-liberal arts-Rockville Center, N.Y.) will take the title role of Razzle McDazzle. Judith Atlas (10th-kindergarten education-Coatesville) will portray a sorority "closet case" who falls in love with Sok Kelly, who will be played by Frank Wilson (6th-electrical engineering-Philadelphia). Kelly is cast as a 12th term fraternity pledge who becomes a football hero with the help of the clever leprechaun.

Taking the role of Prudence, a coed who likes leprechauns, will be Helen Kearney (12th-psychology-Harrisburg). Kenna Holderman (7th-home economics-State College) is cast in the role of a "typical coed." J. Robert Silverton, a campus bigwig, will be played by Gerald Bartell (7th-journalism-Curwensville).

RONALD SMOLIN (10th-journalism-Philadelphia) will take the role of a fraternity president and a friend of the "Tiger's Claw."

Carolyn Fishbein (7th-art education-Baltimore, Md.) is directing the musical and Dawn Strouse (11th-music education-Quakertown) is acting as musical advisor. James Jimirro, instructor in speech, is serving as general production advisor.

The scene of all the action in the show is Penns Woods University and the center of all activity is a building called Old Paine.
