

Maryland's Shiner Looms As Strong Aerial Threat

By JOHN MORRIS
Sports Editor

"I'm getting tired of looking at good quarterbacks," said Penn State assistant coach Joe Paterno after the California game last Saturday.

"We've seen some real good ones already this season in Mahle (Walley of Syracuse), Isaacson (Terry of Air Force), McReynolds (Walt of Rice) and now Morton (Craig of California).

"But this Shiner is probably better than all of them," Paterno continued. "He was great against us last year."

The Shiner in question is one Dick Shiner of the Maryland Terrapins. And, indeed, he was great against State last year.

The Maryland quarterback threw three touchdown passes and led the Terps to a 21-17 upset win over the Lions.

THIS SEASON Shiner is even better. A top candidate for All-American honors, the Terp signal-caller currently leads the nation in passing.

He has completed 87 of 131 passes for 1034 yards. The 87 pass completions stands as a new all-time Maryland record.

Preparing for Shiner's aerial invasion has been the main order of business for the Penn State football team this week.

The Lions allowed 300 yards through the air lanes at California, with Morton supplying 274 of that total.

Needless to say, the Nittanians must sharpen their pass defense to stop the Terrapins.

"UNLESS OUR pass defense is at its best we won't stop Shiner," Penn State scout Tor Toretto has warned the Lions. "and if we don't stop Shiner, we won't beat Maryland."

JOHN SIMKO
... to miss Terp contest

The Lions stayed after sundown to work under the lights on old Beaver Field last night. They spent most of the evening trying to defend against the passes of assistant freshman coach Don Jonas.

Jonas, a former all-state quarterback in high school and a star halfback for the Lions, directed the fourth unit against State's first three teams.

State's Reddy (second) unit was operating without right guard John Simko. The big sophomore has an infection and will sit out the Maryland game. Glenn Ressler, another sophomore, has replaced him. SIMKO HAS been one of the mainstays of the second unit line, shining as State's middle guard on defense.

Captain Joe Galardi has regained the first unit center berth from Jim Williams on offense. Williams and Ralph Baker will replace Galardi on defense.

Halfback Roger Kochman and tackle Chuck Sieminski, injured in the California game, are expected to be ready for the Terrapins.

Kochman has been sidelined with a charley horse and Sieminski suffered a bruised shoulder.

'Big Three' Grid Teams Picked To Capture Weekend Victories

By WILL GRIMSLEY

Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—The goblins are concocting an upset brew for Louisiana State, Navy and Syracuse in three of the weekend's featured games but college football's "big three"—Northwestern, Alabama and Southern Cal—escape the fateful orgy.

Mississippi 14, Louisiana State 8: Ole Miss finally gets fed up with having its season spoiled by the pesky Tigers.

Northwestern 35, Indiana 14: Rifle-armed Tom Myers and his mates celebrate their new position as No. 1 in the nation.

Alabama 33, Mississippi State 0: The Crimson Tide pours it on in a bid to repeat as the national champion.

Southern California 7, Washington 0: The Trojans' beefy line stops the Huskies cold while Pete Beathard squeezes out a touchdown.

Michigan State 18, Minnesota 13: The Spartans' ground attack, which has rolled up 338 yards a game, is too much for the Gophers.

Notre Dame 14, Navy 10: "We'll explode one of these days, maybe Saturday," said the Irish athletic director, Moose Krause.

Pittsburgh 19, Syracuse 8: Up and down like a roller coaster, it's Pitt's week to hit the heights.

Missouri 17, Nebraska 8: Johnny Roland's speed and elusiveness should be the difference.

Georgia Tech, 19, Duke 17: The Blue Devils come close but they don't quite stop Tech's Billy Lottidge.

Davis Awarded NL Sophomore Honors

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Speedy Willie Davis of the Los Angeles Dodgers, voted the National League's Sophomore of the Year, said yesterday he had heard of a so-called jinx on players in their second year in big league baseball.

"But it didn't bother me. I didn't even think about it," said the 22-year-old outfielder, who nonetheless was delighted with the outcome of the annual poll conducted by The Associated Press.

The lanky Dodger batted around 300 all season but in the final weeks tailed off and finished with a .285 average.

Davis collected 32 of the 107 votes cast by members of the Baseball Writers Association.

Dayton Draws NCAA Suspension For Illegal Basketball Assistance

NEW YORK (AP)—The National Collegiate Athletic Association slapped a two-year probationary period on the University of Dayton, 1962 National Invitation Tournament champion, yesterday primarily for illegal transportation provided former basketball prospect Roger Brown of New York.

Brown was not identified by the NCAA, but in Dayton, the Rev. Raymond A. Roesch, university president, confirmed he was the individual involved and said the incident resulted from a trip Brown made from Dayton to New York for an appearance in traffic court.

THE PRESIDENT added: "The athletic department was motivated by what it judged to be a hardship case and felt that it was justified. We accept the penalty imposed by the NCAA committee on infractions and will continue to make every effort to abide by all the laws and by-laws of the NCAA."

Brown enrolled at the start of the 1960-61 school year at Dayton after being one of the most sought after high school prospects in the East.

He played that year with the Dayton freshman team, which also was cited for abuses of NCAA rules, but left school after his involvement in last year's college basketball scandals.

NEW YORK District Attorney Frank Hogan said Brown admitted accepting $250 from confessed gambler Joseph Hacken, now awaiting sentencing on 18 counts of bribery and conspiracy here, as a contact man for Hacken.

Brown's involvement in the scandal, however, had nothing to do with yesterday's NCAA action, one of three disciplinary moves announced by Walter Byers, executive director of the NCAA, on the final day of the three-day fall meeting of the Association's policy-directing Council.

Former Umpire Dies

CINCINNATI (AP)—Larry Goetz, a highly regarded but controversial figure during and after his 22 years as a National League umpire, died yesterday at his home here. He was 67 years old.

Death apparently was due to a heart attack. His wife found him lying on the floor beside his bed yesterday morning.

LAST THREE DAYS

COLLEGE MEN
Part time employment
15 hours per week

Promotional work for internationally known firm with offices in every major city throughout the world. Car furnished. Careers in management available to qualified students upon graduation. Must have at least average grades. Working schedule will be arranged to suit class and study schedule whenever possible.

Call Mr. Morse, 9:30 a.m.-1:00 p.m.
AD 8-8992

Salary — 47 dollars per week

Liven up that party room ...

... with authentic SCALE-MODEL RACEWAYS

Hours of fun for everybody.
Create your own from a complete selection of model kits, including

Scalextric, V.I.P., A.M.T., and Aurora

All Available at

BALLENGER'S Pet and Hobby Rama
104 W. Beaver Ave.

In the other cases, the University of Florida and McMurry, Tex., College drew reprimands, but no suspensions, for minor rules violations.

The action against Dayton, perennially one of the top independent basketball teams in the United States, bars the Flyers from the NCAA post-season championships and the NIT for the full two years.

The basketball team also is barred from so-called cooperating holiday tournaments, with one exception. If Dayton has signed a formal contract for a holiday tournament to be held during the period of its probation, it will be permitted to play in the tournament.

like it hip?

Bufs who dig fresh ideas flip for Pipers, slim-as-a-drumstick slacks that fit so great, you'll go over really big. No belt, no cuffs to bug you; wear 'em low down on the hips and man, you're saying something! In a heap of colorful, washable fabrics; at swingin' stores $4.95 to $12.95.

h.i.s
Piper Slacks

H.I.S. Sportswear Available At
Kalin's
MEN'S STORE
STATE COLLEGE