

3 WRA Officers to Attend Annual Athletics Convention

Three members of the Women's Recreation Association will represent the University at the annual convention of the Pennsylvania Division of the Athletic and Recreation Federation of College Women (PDARFCW) starting tomorrow at Shippensburg State College.

Diana Bonawitz, senior advisor to WRA, and Caroline Mowers, club activities chairman, will attend the convention. Della Durant, faculty advisor, will accompany the girls.

Penn State acted as president college of PDARFCW last year.

The main purpose of this year's convention will be to study the constitution and hold a workshop for the exchange of ideas. A fun-o-rama of sports events will be held tomorrow night. Saturday and Sunday will be spent in various meetings.
