

MARYLAND QUARTERBACK Dick Shiner releases one of his three pass interceptions during the fourth quarter of Saturday's contest. State safety Don Caum intercepted the toss to set up the Lions' second touchdown. Shiner had one of the worst days in his career as he completed only five passes for a total of 33 yards.

Lions Cop Sixth Victory

(Continued from page one)

fumbled the next time the Terps had the ball, and again Robinson recovered. Three plays gained only six yards, however, and Liske punted into the end zone.

Sophomore tailback Len Chivaverini picked up Maryland's initial first down of the game as the first quarter ended with the ball on the Terps' 44-yard line.

Maryland continued its drive at the beginning of the second period, with Shiner and Chivaverini doing most of the running.

Shiner also completed three passes as the Terps drove 80 yards in 16 plays for the touchdown. Shiner plunged over from the one-foot line for the touchdown and kicking specialist John Hannigan added the extra point to give Maryland the lead, 7-3.

THE BALL changed hands two more times before Tom Brody, who kicks without the benefit of a shoe, sliced a punt out of bounds on the Maryland 35-yard line.

It took the Lions just five plays to score from that point, Liske carrying the ball four times and gaining the final 11 yards over the Maryland left end. Coates' extra point boot was blocked by Terp center Gene Feher, but the Lions dashed for the dressing room with a 9-7 halftime lead.

The score stayed that way as Brody and State's Chuck Raisig carried on a punting contest. Raisig, the nation's second best punter going into the game, won the punting contest hands down with a 44.4 yard average, but neither team was able to score.

With Raisig's booming kicks keeping them deep in their own territory, the Terps decided to go to the air.

Shiner dropped back to pass from the Maryland 35-yard line and heaved a spiral that Caum intercepted on the run at the State 48.

The little Lion returned the interception 39 yards to the Maryland 13-yard stripe and Liske slammed over on the very next play. Coates' extra point was wide to the right, but the Nittanies held a 15-7 lead.

Three plays after the ensuing kickoff, Shiner drifted back to pass and again hit Caum with a spiral that the Nittany safety returned 12 yards to the Maryland 30.

STATE MOVED the ball to a first down on the Maryland six-yard line, but two plays lost four yards.

On third down Liske rolled out on the same quarterback keeper he had run so successfully all afternoon, but this time the Terps were ready.

Just as he was hit by three flying Terrapins, Liske flipped the ball to halfback Roger Kochman. The surprised Kochman regained his composure in time to dash into the end zone.

Owls' Overtime Goal Beats Lion Booters

By IRA MILLER

For the first time this season, Penn State's soccer team came from behind to tie up a game. But after twice rallying to catch the Temple Owls, the Lions dropped their fifth game in six starts, 3-2, in overtime Saturday.

Roy Viehweger applied the crushing blow to State's hopes for a winning season when he scored for Temple with two minutes left in the 10-minute overtime.

NCAA soccer rules call for two 5-minute extra periods in case of a tie.

The setback assured State of its fourth straight losing season, although only the fifth since 1919.

John Katona's goal early in the third period tied the game at 1-1 and Jay Stormer's tally midway through the final quarter brought the Lions into a 2-2 deadlock and sent the game into overtime.

Only minutes before Stormer's score, the Owls had missed a golden opportunity to increase their lead when a free penalty kick sailed inches wide of the net.

Tom McDonald and Al Morveci scored Temple's first two goals.

McDonald opened the game's scoring at the 14-minute mark of the second period. Six minutes after Katona's knotting goal, Temple regained the edge on Morveci's shot.

Stormer then set the stage for Viehweger's overtime heroics.

The Lions outshot Temple, 20-15, marking only the second time this year State has outshot its opponent. The other time was in a 3-0 victory over Bucknell, who holds one of the two wins over Temple.

The goals for both Stormer and Katona were their first of the campaign. Stormer was shifted from left halfback to left wing last week.

Coach Ken Hosterman gave the Nittany booters a day of rest yesterday, their first day off in several weeks.

He said he was satisfied with the continued fire work of State's halfbacks on Saturday, especially Dieter Heinze and Ray Dacey, who went in as a sub.

"Temple had a good line," Hosterman said. "It wasn't a case of our defense being bad, but that they moved the ball very well."

While the Owls might be able to move the ball, they have built their 5-2 record this year on defense. Temple has allowed only seven goals in seven games. The Owls yielded two to Bucknell and Philadelphia Textile in 2-1 losses, two to State and one to Hofstra. They have whitewashed LaSalle, Wagner and Gettysburg.

Temple 1 1 0 0 1-2
Penn State 0 0 1 1 0-2
Goals: Temple — McDonald, Morveci, Viehweger, Penn State — Katona, Stormer.
Saves: Weiss (T) 16, Robbins (PS) 13.

THE STATISTICS

Rushing Penn State				Yds.
Liske	15	16	15	90
Hayes	10	10	10	50
Kochman	7	19	7	59
Stuckrath	5	18	5	27
Torris	5	14	5	14
Gursky	4	13	4	13
Caum	2	19	2	19
Powell	1	3	1	3
Weber	1	3	1	3
Potter	1	3	1	3
Maryland
Chivaverini	12	46	12	46
Banner	8	27	8	27
Smith	5	19	5	19
Arizzi	4	12	4	12
Simpson	4	12	4	12
Shiner	3	9	3	9
Corcoran	3	9	3	9
Punting Penn State
Liske	10	3	0	16	0
Potter	1	1	0	6	0
Coates	1	0	1	0	0
Maryland
Shiner	13	5	3	33	0
Corcoran	4	2	0	24	0
Brody	1	0	0	0	0
Pass Receiving Penn State
Gursky	2	11	2	11
Hershey	1	5	1	5
Powell	1	3	1	3
Maryland
Arizzi	4	19	4	19
Nardo	1	31	1	31
Mora	1	10	1	10
Burton	1	7	1	7

Southwick
The Subtle Voice Of Quality

The impeccable appearance of a naturally tailored Southwick suit reflects on our strict adherence to the highest standards of craftsmanship. More than that, it quietly reflects on the good taste of the wearer. Finest domestic and British fabrics.

Jack Harper
W. College Ave., State College around the corner from Bostonian Ltd.

COLLEGE MEN
Part time employment
15 hours per week

Promotional work for internationally known firm with offices in every major city throughout the world. Car furnished. Careers in management available to qualified students upon graduation. Must have at least average grades. Working schedule will be arranged to suit class and study schedule whenever possible.

Call Mr. Morse, 9:30 a.m.-1:00 p.m.
AD 8-8332

Salary - 47 dollars per week

New College Diner
Downtown Berwyn, Pa. Meets

BIKE REPAIRS
PARTS
ACCESSORIES
Western Auto
New Bikes—1 yr. Guarantee
112 S. FRAZIER ST.
AD 7-7882

MEN!

In plastic!

Old Spice
DEODORANT

Here's deodorant protection YOU CAN TRUST

Old Spice Stick Deodorant...fastest, neatest way to all-day, every day protection! It's the active deodorant for active men...absolutely dependable. Glides on smoothly, speedily...dries in record time. Old Spice Stick Deodorant - most convenient, most economical deodorant money can buy. 1.00 plus tax.

Old Spice STICK DEODORANT

SHULTON