

Duvall's Catch Gives Chi Phi Victory

By MAL KLUGMAN

Chi Phi defeated Phi Gamma Delta 7-3 for the fraternity League B title last night, and Gregg Duvall has probably still not recovered from the pats on the back that came his way.

With a minute to go in the contest, Chi Phi's quarterback Bob Bevan flipped a pass into the end zone that was converged upon by Duvall and three Phi Gamma defenders. Duvall made the grab. Tony Felice booted the extra point and Chi Phi scored one of the big upsets of this year's IM football season.

Phi Gamma, perennial playoff entry, scored first on a field goal in the opening minute of play by Larry Wert from 20 yards out and held the lead by coming up with key interceptions until Chi Phi prevailed. Phi Gamma's last bid for the victory was halted by Bob Bevan's interception with 21 seconds remaining.

CHI PHI'S VICTORY, their second win over Phi Gamma this season, places them in the quarterfinal elimination round. They will take on Delta Upsilon tomorrow night at 8:30 on the golf course field.

In another fraternity game, playoff-bound Kappa Sigma completed its league schedule by trouncing Alpha Chi Sigma, 20-7. Kappa Sig's QB Dave Ant-nucci threw three TD passes, two of them to end Larry Dodds.

Two other fraternity battles saw Tau Phi Delta blank Phi Kappa Tau, 13-0; and Beta Theta Pi nip Theta Delta Chi 7-0 on a TD that came with less than a minute to play.

On the independent playoff front, Murray Goldberg kicked a 15-yard field goal and threw to Sam Holt for a touchdown to give the Sportsmen a 10-0 victory over the Old Men.

In a North Halls playoff affair, Allegheny house came from behind to whip Berks, 10-7.

After Tom Shaffer scored on an interception for Berks, Allegheny QB Dean Kaley threw a TD strike to Gene Evanish. John Siegrist later clinched the win with a 40-yard field goal.

In independent playoff games for tonight it will be Lyons II vs. Nittany 36-37, Columbia vs. the Bad Guys, Balsam vs. Nittany 27-28, Birch vs. Venango, Lackawanna vs. Lawrence, Clearfield vs. the Sportsmen and Juniper vs. the Rats. Allegheny has drawn a bye and will meet the Juniper-Rats game winner.

Cub Booters Seek Victory Over Lock Haven Today

Penn State's freshman soccer team will try to even its record at 2-2 when it meets Lock Haven's fresh this afternoon at Lock Haven. The game will end the season for Walt Weiland's Cub booters.

In their season opener, the Lions trounced Lock Haven, 7-1. They have since been beaten by Navy (4-1) and Bucknell (5-0).

Nihar Talib, who scored five of State's seven goals against Lock Haven and the lone tally against Navy, will not be able to play today. He pulled a thigh muscle in the Bucknell game last week.

Boys.

Miami is 1400-miles from the Penn State campus, and with it so is the warm weather. For Penn Staters this means no swimming at Whipples, no sun-tanning, as a matter of fact, we can do nothing even related to summer. But why worry about it. If we are doomed to the long winter months ahead, why not enjoy them.

Let's enjoy the skiing, ice skating and sledding. Let's, however, be dressed warmly at the same time. Outfit yourselves at Hur's Traditional Shop opposite Atherton Hall.

Wayne, the cordial manager of the shop, has everything you need for winter wear: Loden coats, hooded pop-overs, Penn State jackets, poncho jackets, even nylon pullovers with an insulated lining. You can also choose from such names as Woolridge, Sport Chief, and many others.

So remember, winter weather is here to stay and with it all the fun of that season. Just make sure you're dressed warm enough to enjoy it.

Take it easy.
