

U.S. Retains Canada Cup Golf Lead

SAN ISIDRO, Argentina (AP) — Hot Sam Snead and cold Arnold Palmer staved off Australian and Argentine threats yesterday and kept the United States ahead at the halfway mark of the 72-hole Canada Cup golf classic.

Snead fired a 5-under-par 65 and Palmer, whose putter failed him, came in with a 2-over-par 72 on the sunny 6,746-yard Jockey Club course on the outskirts of Buenos Aires.

Their combined 137, coupled with their first-round aggregate of 136, gave them a 36-hole total of 273, 7-under-par.

Snead's 65 and 68 Thursday sent him ahead in the individual test for the International Trophy with 133—also 7-under-par for the first two rounds.

British Open winner Kel Nagle and his partner, Peter Thomson, fired a 65 and 69, respectively, putting the Australians within striking distance of the front-running Americans.

Their 134 total with their previous 142, left them with a 276 score, three strokes behind Snead and Palmer.

The Argentines—Fidel de Luca

and Roberto de Vincenzo — finished in third place.

The Argentine pair's combined 138, along with a previous 139, gave them a 36-hole total of 277, four strokes behind the Snead-Palmer tandem.

Slammin' Sammy was five strokes ahead of the field in his drive to win the International Trophy for the second successive year.
