

DU, Phi Kappa Sig, Bad Guys Enter IM Finals

By MAL KLUGMAN

Three teams advanced last night to the IM football finals to be held at the golf course fields this evening, with one more finalist to be decided by a special playoff.

Delta Upsilon, Phi Kappa Sigma and the Bad Guys made it into the final round while the outcome of the Lackawanna-Rats contest is still to be decided.

Delta Upsilon made an interception pay off for a touchdown in its 7-0 win over Alpha Sigma Phi. DU's Dick Frick picked off a Paul Mockus toss and returned it to Alpha Sig's one-yard line.

Ed Giegucz, DU's quarterback, tried two short heaves before connecting for the winning TD to Al Magnotta. Bob Mascali booted the extra point.

THE GAME was not really over, however, until the last second. A Ron Bua interception gave Alpha Sig the ball on the DU 25 late in the game. Alpha Sig managed a first down but couldn't score as time ran out. Alpha Sig led on first downs at that point and seven points might have given them the victory.

Undefeated, unscored upon Phi Kappa Sigma continued its winning ways with a 3-0 victory over neighboring Kappa Sigma. The game was decided by Dick Lacey's field goal after he had intercepted a Dave Antenucci aerial midway through the last half.

Phi Kappa Sig held onto its slim margin by controlling the ball on a sustained drive in the last five minutes of the game. By the time Kappa Sig got possession of the ball, only 30 seconds remained in the contest, not enough time for Kappa Sig to mount an offensive.

Phi Kap was also helped out by the fine defensive work of Larry Gaertner, who picked off four Kappa Sig passes.

The participants in the final independent contest are still in doubt, but the Bad Guys will be one of the teams to play for the crown.

The Bad Guys, led by quarterback Frank Davis, made a first minute touchdown stand up to give them a 7-0 win over Venango House of East Halls.

THE TD came on the opening series of the game when Davis lateraled to Bill Firing, who rambled 25 yards down the middle for the winning touchdown. Davis then added the extra point for the final margin.

The Bad Guys will have to wait until tonight to find out who their opponents will be for the championship. Lackawanna and the Rats, who were supposed to have decided the other berth in their contest last night, will have their second half replayed because of a disputed penalty call.

In the game, the Rats took a 2-0 lead over Lackawanna early in the first half on a safety that occurred when King Strong lagged Ron Calen in his end zone.

THE SCORE remained at 2-0 until, with seven minutes left in the game, Lackawanna's Fred Owen booted a 10-yard field goal to give the North Halls squad the lead and apparently the victory.

It was during the series of plays leading to the field goal, however, that the disputed call occurred which has left the game's outcome in doubt.

On the third down play of that drive, the Rats were penalized five yards for unsportsmanlike conduct which occurred after the completion of the play. Lackawanna was mistakenly given another down and after a pass failed, Owen kicked the three-pointer.

Dutch Sykes, IM director, said that since the penalty had a direct bearing on the outcome of the game, the second half will be replayed tonight, beginning at 6:00. The Bad Guys will meet the winner of this game at 6:30 for the title.

The fraternity final between Phi Kappa Sigma and Delta Upsilon will begin at 7:30.

Downes Wins by TKO

LONDON (AP) — Terry Downes, British middleweight champion, defeated Phil Moyer of Portland, Ore., on a technical knockout in the ninth round last night. Referee Jack Hart stopped the fight after 30 seconds of the ninth round of the scheduled 10-rounder when blood flowed from a cut over Moyer's right eye.

Badger QB Named Back of the Week

By The Associated Press

Ron VanderKelen, a late blooming senior quarterback from Wisconsin, was named the Associated Press' back of the week yesterday for his part in the Badgers' 37-6 upset, of Northwestern last Saturday.

Bill King of Dartmouth, Daryle Lamonica of Notre Dame, Joe Namath of Alabama and Pete Beathard of Southern California were among the others considered after sparkling performances in Saturday's games.

VanderKelen, who played only 90 seconds of varsity ball before this season, completed 12 of 22 passes for 181 yards and three touchdowns in the surprising victory over Northwestern.

King accounted for five touchdowns, four by passes and one by running, as unbeaten Dartmouth routed Columbia 42-0 and clinched at least a tie for the Ivy League title.
