Library Survey Investigates Service

A survey is currently being conducted by the Pattee Library staff to determine ways of improving the library's service, Ralph W. McComb, University librarian, said recently. The questionnaire, which is entitled "Did You Find What You Need?" is available to all students and faculty members. The questionnaires are located on the second floor of Pattee near the card catalogs, McComb said. "Students have been participating by answering the questionnaires, but too few have been collected to determine any conclusive results," he said.
