

Phi Kappa Sig, Rats Win Crusaders Beware— Intramural Football Titles Lions Healthy Again

By ED CARPENTER

THE 1962 FRATERNITY CHAMPIONS

The names of Guy Tirabassi and Gip Bonar will remain in the annals of Phi Kappa Sigma as the players who spearheaded the 1955 and 1958 football teams, respectively, to the IM football championships.

Now it's time for these two players to move over and make room for the members of the 1962 IM team. For these are the boys who last night defeated Delta Upsilon, 4-2 on first downs, to take the IM fraternity crown.

DU rolled to the first of its two first downs on the opening play of the game. After downing Phi Kappa Sig's opening kickoff on his own 19, DU quarterback Ed Gieguez passed to Dick Frick for the first down. DU could only advance to its 35, and on fourth down punted to the Phi Kappa Sig 21.

PHI KAP MANAGED to move the ball across midfield for its initial first down and moved to within field goal kicking distance. On fourth down Phi Kap's Dick Lacey tried to split the uprights from DU's 39.

The attempt fell short and DU's Dave Flinchbaugh picked off the ball and returned it to his own 16.

On the first play, Phi Kap Don Jameson intercepted a pass on DU's 21. Two days later Skull House's quarterback, Jim Terry, pitched a lateral to Bill Chapas. Chapas then threw a 15-yard lateral to Terry, who had raced downfield following the lateral. With a nifty bit of running, Terry eluded three DU players and made it to paydirt. However, an unnecessary roughness penalty nullified the six-pointer.

Before the half had ended Phi Kappa Sig managed to add one more first down on a pass from Terry to Larry Gaertner, giving Phi Kap a 2-1 lead on first downs at the end of the half.

The opening minutes of the second half found both teams exchanging first downs. Phi Kap added their third and winning first down on an 11-yard pass from Terry to Jameson, moving the ball from the 19 to the 30-yard line.

DU ADDED THEIR second and final first down on a pass from Gieguez to Denny German.

The final first down was added by Terry on a one-yard end run. The run followed a 36-yard DU punt to the Phi Kappa Sig 39.

In addition to last night's victory, Phi Kappa Sig can boast of an undefeated, unscored-on season.

In the independent final, the Rats, who earlier defeated Lackawanna, 9-0, in a special playoff, shut out the Bad Guys, 7-0.

The lone score came when the Rats' Roy Brubaker intercepted a Bad Guys pass on the latter's two-yard line and merely walked over for the TD. The PAT was added by Mike Sheeny.

The touchdown was the first score against the Bad Guys and led to their only loss of the season.

IN THE LION'S last outing, a 3-1 loss to Army, the Nittanies were plagued by the same difficulty that has been hurting them all season — a woeful lack of offensive firepower. The Lions sent only five shots in the direction of Cadet goalie Ken Eklund

Soccermen Need Win and Tie To Avoid Worst Season's Mark

By IRA MILLER

Penn State's booters need a least a victory and a tie in their two remaining games to avoid the dubious distinction of equalling the worst Lion soccer record in history.

Beaten six times in seven games, the Lions are rapidly closing in on the mark established by the 1959 team. That squad compiled a 2-7 record. The Lions will tie that mark by winning one of their last two games. If they win both they will equal the marks of the 1960 and 1961 teams, 3-6. A victory and a tie will leave them at 2-6-1.

STATE'S two remaining games are against Gettysburg and Pitt. In both cases, it'll be the season finale for the Lion opponents. Gettysburg went into yesterday's game with Muhlenberg with a 4-7 mark and four straight losses. Pitt is 7-0-2 with just the Lions in the path of an undefeated season.

The Bullets will be here Saturday to close out the home portion of the Nittany schedule, and if comparative scores mean anything, the Lions should come up with their second triumph.

The teams have played three common foes—Temple, Bucknell, and Navy. Gettysburg lost to Temple, 3-0, while the Owls beat State, 3-2 in overtime. Bucknell ripped Gettysburg, 7-1, while the Lions whitewashed the Bisons, 3-0. Navy rolled over Gettysburg, 9-1, and shut out the Lions, 3-0.

Penn State's once-beaten football team is healthy for the second straight week and that spells nothing but trouble for its opponent Saturday, Holy Cross.

Lion coach Rip Engle said that his team was completely healthy for the first time against West Virginia. Then the Nittanies went out and manhandled the Mounties, 34-6.

Now the Lions' medical corps reports that the Nittanies are healthy again. Let the Crusaders beware.

"We had our full squad together for a whole week for the first time last week," Engle explained. "It made a big difference."

TOWERING LION tackle Chuck Sieminski, named to the ECAC weekly All-East team for his performance against West Virginia, agreed with his coach.

"You can move better and hit harder when you get rid of all these little injuries," Sieminski said.

Engle, in turn, praised the 6-5, 250-pound Sieminski, calling his performances against Maryland and West Virginia "the best football he's ever played."

That's high praise for a lineman of Sieminski's caliber, who is bidding for national honors and should be a cinch to make everybody's All-East team.

RUMORS OF possible bowl bids have been circulating around the campus, but the Lions haven't received any official bids.

The Nittanies, boasting a 7-1 record with two games to play, are under consideration by the Orange Bowl, Cotton Bowl, Liberty Bowl, Gator Bowl and Gotham Bowl.

But Engle is much too concerned about the Nittanies' next two games to be thinking about plans for New Years.

"We've still got to play the Fitton Field Bowl this week and the Oakland Bowl next week," Engle said yesterday.

THE NITTANIES have been working on their pass defense this week in anticipation of an aerial bombardment by Crusader quarterback Pat McCarthy.

The pass defenders were excellent against Maryland and West Virginia, but McCarthy is more of a running threat than either the Terps' Dick Shiner or the Mounties' Jerry Yost.

Shiner was hindered by a snowstorm and Yost complained of the slippery footing last week.

"It was just too slippery for our kind of offense," Yost explained after the game. "We like to sprint out, stop and then throw, but it was too slippery and I just couldn't stop."

Nobody said so, but who would want to stop running anyway when he has Sieminski, Dave Robinson, Terry Monaghan, Dick Anderson and Hatch Rosdahl breathing down his neck?
