

Improved HB Line Aids Lion Booters

By IRA MILLER

An improved halfback line played a major role in Saturday's second win of the year for Penn State's soccer team as the Lion booters overcame their lethargy long enough to hang a 3-1 setback on Gettysburg.

Veterans Dieter Heinze and Harry Kline along with sophomore Ray Dacey make up the Nittanies' midfield trio. Coach Ken Hosterman heaped a lot of credit on this threesome for Saturday's triumph.

"Our halfback line played a real good game," Hosterman said. "Gettysburg came on strong in the second half but I think they were better than we let them look. That halfback line of ours stopped them every time and didn't give them a chance to score."

Val Djurdjevic, a two-year letterman from Aliquippa, John Katona and captain Jay Stormer also played key roles in the Lions' triumph.

ALTHOUGH HE didn't score Saturday, Djurdjevic came up with another fine performance to help the Lion offense control the game. Stormer, moved to the forward line in mid-season, assisted on the first goal and played a good, aggressive ball game. Djurdjevic and Stormer are the only seniors in the Lions' starting lineup.

Katona scored the first two goals in Saturday's game and assisted on the Lions' third score in his best performance of the season.

Hosterman credited Katona for Saturday's 3-goal first half, the Lions' best start since they beat Colgate, 4-3, last year to end a 19-game Red Raider winning streak. State had three first half goals that day, too.

"Katona was outstanding," he said. "He was in the game for the full 88 minutes and really hustled. He scored two and might

Barbell Club Names Top Weightlifters

Bill Bardwell and Dick Bergenback won the individual titles in the Penn State Barbell Club's open weight lifting meet Sunday in Rec Hall.

Bardwell, competing in the 181-pound class, lifted a total of 665 pounds to win the Olympic Lifting Contest. His total included 200 pounds each in the press and snatch and a 265-pound clean and jerk.

Bergenback, a heavyweight, won the odd lift contest with a total of 1120 pounds. He lifted 220 in the bench press, 400 in parallel squat and had a 500-pound dead lift.

Runners-up were Brian Young in the Olympic Lifting and Don Sobel in the odd lift.

Norm Gordon, the club's advisor, said yesterday that the club would probably have another open meet during January with a view toward intercollegiate competition later in the winter.

Tech Votes Yes To Bluebonnet Bid

HOUSTON (AP)—Georgia Tech's Yellow Jackets voted yesterday to accept a bid to the Dec. 22 Bluebonnet Bowl.

The invitation will not become official until after Tech's Dec. 1 game with Georgia but the vote ended speculation that Georgia Tech was in line for the Gator Bowl or, possibly, the Sugar Bowl.

Lou Hassell, chairman of the Bluebonnet Bowl Selections Committee, indicated Missouri or Washington will be Tech's opponent in the fourth annual classic to be played in the 70,000-seat Rice University Stadium.

Mantle Wins Third MVP Award

BOSTON (AP)—Mickey Mantle, the Yankees' gimpy-legged slugging master, was named the American League's most valuable player for the third time in his career yesterday.

The 31-year-old New York center fielder beat out Bobby Richardson, 234 votes to 152, in a polling by a committee of the Baseball Writers Association of America.

Harmon Killebrew of the Minnesota Twins placed third with 99 votes.

Mantle, feared at the end of his playing career last spring when he injured his left leg and knee, also won the league's highest honor in 1956 and 1957.

He had been nosed out by Roger Maris of the Yankees in 1960 and 1961—by a slim four-vote margin a year ago.

Mantle belted 30 home runs, had 89 RBI and, with a .321 average, was runner-up in the American League batting race to Boston's champion, Pete Runnels.

Hobbled much of the time from his legs and then by a rib injury, Mickey missed 39 games but still was in action enough, offensively and defensively, to pace the Yankees to their 13th pennant in the last 16 years.

Mantle, joining a select group of previous threetime MVP winners in the league, received 13 of the first place votes cast. Richardson got five and Killebrew and Tom Tresh, the Yank's star rookie shortstop-outfielder, each received one.

have had more but they put two men on him in the second half."

This Saturday the Lions tangle with Pitt in what figures to be one of their toughest games of the year. The Panthers have one player who has scored as many goals as the entire Lion team.

CORKY CUTHBERT, who twice tallied three goals in a game, has a total of 14 scores in Pitt's nine regular-season games.

The Panthers (7-1-2) suffered their only loss Monday, bowing 4-3 to Maryland in an Eastern Regional NCAA playoff game after leading 3-1 in the first quarter.

Maryland meets Michigan State (4-0 victor over Howard University of Washington, D.C.) in one semi-final game tomorrow in St. Louis. Springfield (Mass.) will meet the winner of a game between St. Louis and Stanford in the other semi-final. The title game is scheduled for Saturday. St. Louis won the first two championships, in 1959 and 1960, and West Chester won last year.
