

33. Ilya Ehrenburg: THE STORMY LIFE OF LASIK ROITZCHWANTZ. The first English publication of this famous satire of Communism written in 1927, in Paris, by the present dean of Soviet writers. It is a wild comic fantasy about the misadventures of a simple Jewish tailor in the toils of the Party Bureaucracy—and is to this day still suppressed by Soviet censorship. Pub. at $5.95. Sale $1.98

34. CHINA Lore, Legend and Lyrics. by R. de Rothen Barondes. Mythology, religions, superstitions, magic, medicine, prose, verse, proverbs and customs—a brilliant and fascinating introduction to the riches of a great civilization. Over 50 integrated illustrations of Chinese art. Pub. at $4.75. Sale $1.98

35. THE UNION READER—As the North Saw the War. ed. by Richard B. Harwell. Battle orders, prison narratives, popular songs, political speeches and humorous sketches—the words of Lincoln, the great Generals, civilians and soldiers of the North. Pub. at $7.50. Sale $1.98

36. Anatomy of a Scream—THE FROG POND. by Joyce MacIver. The astonishingly frank confessional of a young woman whose strange compulsion drove her from lover to lover and from analyst to analyst. Pub. at $4.95. Sale $1.98

37. The Borzoi Book of FRENCH FOLK TALES. ed. by Paul Delarue. Illus. by Warren Chappell. 54 masterpieces of Gallic humor, prose and poetry. Included are lively versions of the Bluebeard Story, Little Red Riding Hood, etc. Pub. at $5.00. Sale $1.98

38. ROBERT BURNS, by John Lindsey. A fully rounded biography of the great Scottish poet and lover, revolutionary and philanthropist, from ploughman to Edinburgh drawingroom, from tavern rhymer to world poet. Illus. Pub. at $3.95. Sale $1.98

39. THE DILEMMA OF BEING MODERN. by J. P. Hodin. Essays on art, literature and psychology by a critic of international renown. Conversations with Edvard Munch, James Ensor and Chagall, penetrating reflections on the works of Kafka, Goethe, Malraux and Freud. Pub. at $5.00. Sale $1.98

40. SEEDS OF TIME: The Background of Southern Thinking. by Henry Sagage, Jr. A penetrating study of slavery and King Cotton, the Civil War and reconstruction, the Klan and the NAACP, Bilbo and Thomas Wolfe—the vast panorama behind the Southern mind today. Pub. at $4.50. Sale $1.98

7. NO STONE UNTURNED: An Almanac of North American Prehistory. by Louis A. Brennan. This brilliant, vividly written synthesis destroys the belief that the American Indian descended from Monks reaching this hemisphere only 4000 years ago. Based on Carbon 14 dating techniques, the author establishes the presence of the Americans 40,000 years ago and follows the rise of their culture to the strange complex empire of the Hopewell Mound Builders. Illus. Pub. at $5.00. Sale $1.98

41. MONEY AND EMOTIONAL CONFLICTS. by Edmund Bergler, M.D. The famed psychiatrist examines the misuse of money for unconscious ends by the miser, the success hunter, the gold digger, the playboy, etc. Pub. at $3.95. Sale $1.98

42. SIX STUDIES IN QUARRELLING. by Vincent Bromé. Wit and wisdom abound in these entertaining and instructive ring-side studies of famous literary quarrels between such figures as: George Bernard Shaw, H. G. Wells, G. K. Chesterton, Hilaire Belloc, Dr. Coulton and Henry James. Pub. at $4.25. Sale $1.98

43. THE GREAT BURLINGTON STRIKE OF 1888. A Case History in Labor Relations. by Donald L. McMurry. A chronicle of one of the most important episodes in the history of American labor relations. All the drama of the powerful and conservative railroad system pitted against the unions led by Grand Chief Arthur and Gene Debs. The deep antagonisms within both factions, dynamite, strike-breaking and Pinkerton men. Pub. at $6.00. Sale $1.98

44. THREE SAINTS AND A SINNER. by Louise Hall Tharp. The story of the dynamic Julia Ward Howe, who wrote "The Battle Hymn of the Republic," her sisters Louisa and Annie and their fabulous brother Sam, Confederate sympathizer and "King of the Lobbyists." Illus. Pub. at $5.00. Sale $1.98

45. THE PRINCE CONSORT: A Political Biography. by Frank Eyck. New light on Queen Victoria's Albert. A brilliant account of his efforts to see that the Crown remained above party differences and his plans for a liberal Germany. "Scholarly and very readable."—Manchester Guardian. Pub. at $4.50. Sale $1.98

46. THE CRITICAL READER. ed. by Douglas, Lamson and Smith. Over 770 pages of the world's greatest poems, stories and essays with critical suggestions designed to stimulate good writing as well as careful reading. Every important writer from Shakespeare to Thurber is amply represented. Pub. at $6.00. Sale $1.98

47. MARLBOROUGH'S DUCHESS — A Study in Worldliness. by Louis Kronenberger. The intrigues, politics, and passions of this feared and influential woman, the power behind Queen Anne's throne in 18th century England. Pub. at $5.75. Sale $1.98

48. ADONIS. by Jean de La Fontaine. The author of the wise and wonderful Fables celebrates the tragic love of Venus and Adonis. A beautiful, lyrical poem in a lovely gift edition illustrated with six color lithographs by Ru Van Rossem. Pub. at $3.00. Sale $1.98

49. AMERICAN WRITING TODAY. ed. by Allen Angoff. The famous special issue of the London Times Literary Supplement in permanent book form. Pub. at $4.50. Sale $1.98

50. PROFILE OF AMERICA. ed. by Emilie Davie. Over 150 prints and photos and 200 epoch-making documents. Famous statements by explorers, industrialists, statesmen, artists and reformers illustrate the majesty and drama of the American experience from the first observations of the Vikings to Eisenhower on the perils of the Atomic Age. Pub. at $4.95. Sale $2.98

51. Stendhal: ROME, NAPLES AND FLORENCE. Italy as it could only be apprehended by a great writer in whose sensibility both artist and cosmopolitan were perfectly blended. Here is the changeless, living spirit of Italy's people, cities, art, countryside—conveyed in hundreds of fascinating anecdotes and acute observations which draw upon vast knowledge, wit and rich experience. With an appendix of 800 concise biographies of contemporary men and women of note. Pub. at $7.50. Sale $2.98

52. CHINA IN THE 16th CENTURY: The Journals of Matthew Ricci, 1583-1610. The great Jesuit missionary's story of his life in China three centuries after Marco Polo. Father Ricci's scientific knowledge, mastery of the language and understanding of the people gave rise to the first literary and philosophic period in Sino-European relations. This epoch-making historical document is here presented for the first time in English. Trans. by L. J. Gallagher, S. J. Foreword by Richard J. Cushing, Archbishop of Boston. Pub. at $7.50. Sale $2.98

53. THE MAVELOUS LIFE OF THE BUDDHA. by Maurice Percheron. Combining the known facts of the Buddha's existence and his teaching with the beautiful myths he has inspired, this is the story of Guatama's miraculous birth, his princely youth, the winning of his bride, the voluptuous magnificence of their life together, and the day of the Great Departure, when he set forth on his search for Truth. Pub. at $5.75. Sale $2.98

D. THEODORE ROOSEVELT: The Formative Years. by Carleton Putnam. Over 600 pages of exciting reading about the first twenty-eight years (1858-1886) of the liveliest of our presidents. Here is the complete story of his childhood battle for health, his Harvard career, his first political forays, and the most complete account of his thrilling adventures out West. Illus. Pub. at $10.00. Sale $2.98

54. PREHISTORIC REPTILES AND BIRDS. by D. J. Augusta, illus. by Z. Burian. 31 original paintings, 17 in full color of ancient flying creatures—ptero-dactyls, pterosaurs, pteranodons, etc. shown in realistic natural settings. Plus portraits of Darwin, George Cuvier, Richard Owen, other famous naturalists. 9 1/2" x 10 1/2". Pub. at $4.95. Sale $2.98

55. DICTIONARY OF PHILOSOPHY. ed. by Dagobert D. Runes. Every term, idea and system of thought clearly and authoritatively defined; with full biographical information on important thinkers from the beginnings to existentialism and Zen. Pub. at $6.00. Sale $2.98

56. JOURNEY TO THE ENDS OF TIME—Lost in the Dark Wood. by Sacheverell Sitwell. The distinguished author and poet illuminates and expands upon a great theme—the transition, or catastrophe, that takes place at death. Reflections on art, nature and the symbolism and mythology of death in all cultures and civilizations. Pub. at $7.50. Sale $2.98

57. DICTIONARY OF LINGUISTICS. by Mario Pel & Frank Gaynor. Indispensable reference for all who use and love words—over 2,800 thorough, precise definitions of terms in language study, philology, phonetics, phonemics, historical and structural linguistics. Pub. at $6.00. Sale $2.98

58. THE AMERICAN LYCEUM. by Carl Bode. A fascinating study of the great democratic and intellectual "adult education" programs of the 19th century, from whose platforms Emerson, Thoreau, Daniel Webster and many others promulgated their theories. Pub. at $5.00. Sale $2.98

59. YANKEE REPORTERS, 1861-1865. by Emmet Crozier. The Civil War as seen through the eyes of the heroic men who, in the thick of every battle from Bull Run to Gettysburg, wrote America's history as it happened. A "must" for Civil War buffs. Pub. at $6.00. Sale $2.98

60. The Life of ELIZABETH BARRETT BROWNING. by Gardner B. Taplin. The long-awaited, definitive biography of one of the truly important figures in Victorian letters, and the famous romance which spirited her away from the dreariness of Wimpole Street to a creative and happy life in Italy. Based primarily on new materials, offering a fresh and vital portrait of Victorian life and literature. Illus. Pub. at $6.50. Sale $2.98

61. THE TRAVELS OF MARK TWAIN. ed. by Charles Neider. Wonderful collection of Mark Twain's travel pieces, including many long unavailable, full of astirring observations and amusing anecdotes. Drawn from his novels and essays, they cast a clear and merry eye on the manners and morals of many lands, from San Francisco to Venice. Pub. at $7.50. Sale $3.98

62. IN THE DAYS OF MCKINLEY. by Margaret Leech. A full-dress, 600-page biography of a President who was a finer man and official than has commonly been supposed, set against the background of the Spanish-American War and overseas expansion, the currency battle and William Jennings Bryan, Mark Hanna and the protective tariff. Excitingly told by a Pulitzer Prize winner. 32 pages of photographs. Pub. at $7.50. Sale $3.98

E. THE PAST WE SHARE: An Illustrated History of the British and American Peoples. ed. by Peter Quennell & Alan Hodge, with 611 rare illustrations, 23 in full color. Spans nine centuries, from the battle of Hastings through the World Wars; the heritage of the English speaking peoples in the arts, politics, science; the "greats" from Cromwell to Churchill, Washington to Eisenhower. 8 1/2" x 11 1/2". Pub. at $12.50. Sale $5.98

63. THE STORY OF WORLD OPERA. by K. V. Burian. An encyclopedic history of grand opera from Monteverdi through Verdi, Puccini, and Menotti. Great singers and companies of the world, the architecture of the opera house, etc. 384 illustrations. 9 1/2" x 11". Pub. at $6.00. Sale $3.98

64. PREHISTORIC MAN—With 52 Large Plates, 27 in Full Color. Text by Prof. Josef Augusta. Illus. by Zdenek Burian. A remarkable record of man's evolutionary development in clear and readable text and astonishingly realistic pictures. From Australopithecus, the "ape man" who roamed Southern Africa over 1,000,000 years ago, down to our own species, Homo sapiens. 10 1/2" x 14", with slipcase. Magnificent. Pub. at $9.95. Sale $5.98

65. FIELDS OF GLORY—An Illustrated History of Land Warfare in America. by W. H. Nelson & F. E. Vandiver. A tremendously absorbing chronicle, from King Philip's War, when a series of Indian massacres almost drove the settlers from New England, to the Korean conflict. A handsome 8 1/2" x 11 1/4" volume, with 16 maps of campaigns and battles, and over 300 magnificent illustrations selected from many hitherto neglected sources. Pub. at $10.00. Sale $3.98

66. MILITARY HISTORY OF THE CIVIL WAR, 1861-1865. by W. B. Wood and Major Edmonds. A reissue of the rare and famous Civil War classic, the life work of two English military authorities. Detailed descriptions of all the battles, tactics and strategy of both Union and Confederate armies and leaders. 54 illustrations by contemporary artists, 22 maps and 8 reproductions of the famous original Kurz and Allison lithographs in full color. 10 1/2" x 14". Pub. at $15.00. Sale $5.95

67. Indian Wars of the Far West—MASSACRES OF THE MOUNTAINS. by J. P. Dunn, Jr. The unexpurgated, documented narrative of every major engagement fought between the white men and Indians from 1815 to 1875. Details of battle strategies, Custer's Last Stand, Geronimo and the Apaches, Kit Carson, etc. 669 pages, contemporary illus. Pub. at $6.95. Sale $3.98

68. American Classic—THE COMMUNISTIC SOCIETIES OF THE UNITED STATES. by Charles Nordhoff. A facsimile re-issue of this unparalleled work, originally published in 1875, until now very scarce and expensive when found. This is the classic eyewitness report of the Economists, Zoarites, Amana, Aurora, Oneida and other fascinating Utopian communities that flourished in 19th century America from Maine to Oregon. Over 40 illus. Pub. at $12.50. Sale $3.98

69. THE ILLUSTRATED ENCYCLOPEDIA OF MODERN SCIENCE. A complete reference work incorporating the Grolier Encyclopedia science entries with additional articles, photographs, charts and color plates. These two library size volumes illuminate 50 different areas of science with over 12,000 entries on 1,536 pages. 1,500,000 words of text in non-technical language are enriched by more than 1200 photographs, diagrams, tables and color plates. For businessmen, students, "do it yourselfers" seeking the how and why of motors, TV, electronics, etc. 2 volume deluxe, gold-embossed duotone bound set in heavy slip-case. A $25.00 value. Sale $9.99

70. John Humphrey Noyes' HISTORY OF AMERICAN SOCIALISMS. A reprint of the scarce 1870 edition of the first systematic study of Robert Owen's "New Harmony," Channing's "Brook Farm," The Shaker, the various "Phalanxes" and Noyes' own fabulous "Oneida Community," 678 pages. Pub. at $12.50. Sale $3.98

71. THE HISTORY OF MODERN CULTURE. by Maurice Parmelee. A monumental work, tracing the main course of cultural evolution throughout the ages. Man's technology, agriculture, transportation, languages, institutions, religion, art and science—analyzed scientifically and philosophically. 1282 pages. Pub. at $10.00. Sale $4.98

72. America's First Great Architect: BENJAMIN HENRY LATROBE. by Talbot Hamlin. Living, vivid record of the life and times of the brilliant architect, engineer and artist—designer-builder of the Capitol and the White House, friend of Madison and Jefferson, and one of the prime molders of American culture. 633 pages, 36 plates. Pub. at $15.00. Sale $3.98

A14. MOTHER GOOSE NURSERY PICTURES. by Leonard Weisgard, Series A. Little Bo Peep, Old Mother Hubbard, Three Little Kittens, Peter, Peter Pumpkin Eater, Ride A Cock Horse, and Little Boy Blue—all these favorites as captured by the noted children's illustrator. 13" x 16". Special: Set of 6—$1

A15. MOTHER GOOSE NURSERY PICTURES. Series B. Six large, colorful prints to brighten baby's room—includes Humpty Dumpty, Jack and Jill, Mary Had A Little Lamb, The Old Woman Who Lived in a Shoe, Rock-A-Bye Baby, and Hey Diddle Diddle. 13" x 16". Special: Set of 6—$1

KEELER'S... The University Bookstore

STATE COLLEGE

PHONE AD 8-0524