

A16. FARM ANIMALS. by Leonard Weisgard. Playful puppies and kittens, bunny rabbits and ducklings, three little pigs and baby chicks—all the other favorites! These large, brightly colored scenes capture all the adventure and delight of farm life, and are just superb for baby's room. 13"x16" portfolio. Special: set of 8 color prints—$1

A17. FAIRY TALES. by Szasz. The well-known stories that children have always loved in bright, sparkling color prints—Goldilocks and the Three Bears, Jack and the Beanstalk, Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs and three other favorites. 13"x16". Set of 6 Special $1

A18. HISTORICAL AMERICAN DOCUMENTS. The Declaration of Independence, Bill of Rights, the Constitution and the Gettysburg Address faithfully reproduced from the originals on fine parchment-type paper. Perfect for framing for every American home, office and school. 14"x16" portfolio. Set of 4 Special $1

A19. CHILDREN OF ONE WORLD. Charming paintings ranging from the bold reds, blacks and whites of Peru, the gay pastels of Holland, to the softer shadings of Spain and Japan. 17"x14" portfolio. Orig. $2.50. Set of four color prints—now $1

73. HENRY GEORGE. by C. A. Barker. The exciting life of the man whose controversial theories galvanized social reform during the height of the Industrial Revolution, and influenced a range of thinkers from Leo Tolstoy to Ezra Pound. A brilliant drama of 19th century intellectual and social ferment. 696 pages. Pub. at $9.50 Sale $3.98

F. CONCISE WORLD HISTORY. by B. Finger, Jr. Comprehensive, 852-page one-volume history, with strong emphasis on man's achievements in the arts, philosophy, religion and the sciences. Includes detailed discussions of the Egyptian, Greek and Roman heritage and the cultural impact of the Renaissance and Reformation. Pub. at $10.00 Sale $3.98

74. TWENTIETH CENTURY FRENCH PAINTING, VOL. I. by Bernard Dorival. A critical analysis of the revolution in color, Expressionism, Fauvism, Cubism and the beginnings of Non-Objectivism. 58 tipped-in, full color reproductions of works by Modigliani, Rouault, Picasso, Matisse and 49 others, plus biographical notes on every artist. Pub. at $10.00. Sale $5.95

75. TWENTIETH CENTURY FRENCH PAINTING, VOL. II. by Bernard Dorival. Every amazing new movement and trend since World War I: the "Naive," later Expressionism, Surrealism, and the entire range of Abstract painting. 61 full color, tipped-in reproductions illustrate all the vitality and complexity of contemporary art. Biographical notes on 114 painters. Pub. at $10.00. Sale $5.95

76. GERMAN PAINTING. by Marcel Brion. 58 full color, tipped-in reproductions. A clear and comprehensive study of the genius of Northern painting from the 14th century to the present. Every major trend, every important artist from Konrad Witz and Durer to Marc and Klee. Pub. at $10.00. Sale $5.95

77. INDIAN PAINTING. by Philip Rawson. A magnificent volume covering over four millenniums of Hindu, Buddhist and Islamic painting in India and Ceylon. 63 tipped-in, full color reproductions bring forth all the glowing sensuousness of the Ajanta cave, Medieval manuscripts, much more. Pub. at $10.00. Sale $5.95

78. THE SECOND TREE FROM THE CORNER. Essays, stories, poems and parodies of sad, eccentric beauty by the famed writer whose pieces have delighted "New Yorker" readers for three decades. Pub. at $3.00. Sale $1

79. HESTER BATEMAN: Queen of English Silver-smiths. by David S. Shure. A history of the unparalleled art of the famous Bateman family between 1761 and 1820. Nearly 100 prize examples—flatware, serving pieces, boxes, bells, and a variety of other specimens—are fully described and handsomely illustrated. 8 1/2 x 11 1/2". Pub. at $7.95. Sale $3.98

80. SELECTED LETTERS OF D. H. LAWRENCE. ed. and intro. by Diana Trilling. Brilliant and often furious appraisals of his friends, himself, the world; all Lawrence's vision, energy and anger candidly revealed to Amy Lowell, Katherine Mansfield, Aldous Huxley, Bertrand Russell, many others. Pub. at $4.50. Sale $1.98

81. SELECTED LETTERS OF ANTON CHEKHOV. ed. and intro. by Lillian Hellman. The Dreyfus case, the Moscow Art Theatre, censorship in Czarist Russia, travels in Siberia, the production of his plays, Russian literature and politics and much more. Correspondents include Stanislavski, Gorki, Sholom Aleichem. Pub. at $4.50. Sale $1.98

82. Nobel Prize Winner: SALVATORE QUASIMODO: SELECTED WRITINGS. ed. and trans. by Allen Mandelbaum. Most of the poetry and two essays, "Discourse on Poetry" and "Dante," in the only authorized English translation. Pub. at $5.00. Sale $1.98

83. Oscar Wilde: De PROFUNDIS. ed. and intro. by Vyrian Holland. The first complete and accurate version of Wilde's last prose work, a tragic, brilliantly written document of his last months in Reading Gaol. Pub. at $4.00. Sale $1.00

84. HISTORY OF PROSTITUTION. by William W. Sanger. The most thorough and comprehensive study of prostitution ever attempted. Detailed documented accounts of the orgies of Babylonia, the bacchanals of ancient Greece, the exotic practices of the Orient, white slavery in the modern world and much more. 699 pages. Pub. at $6.00. Sale $3.98

85. A PRESIDENT'S ODYSSEY. by Merriman Smith. The inside story of President Eisenhower's 100,000-mile "selling trip" for world peace. Pub. at $3.95. Sale $1.00

86. PERSPECTIVE OF NUDES. by Bill Brandt. Pref. by Lawrence Durrell. 90 remarkable full-page studies of the nude, ranging in conception from the romantic to the abstract. Picasso and Edward Steichen are among the devotees of the work of this great English photographer. 9 1/2 x 11". Pub. at $7.95. Sale $2.98

87. The Age of Swift and Sheridan: DUBLIN UNDER THE GEORGES, 1714-1830. by Constantia Maxwell. An urbane, scholarly and lively study of a great city during its most brilliant epoch. The opulence of the rich, the misery of the poor, the bawdy Restoration Theatre, the fascinating personalities of Fanny Kemble, David Garrick, Horace Walpole, et al. Pub. at $6.00. Sale $2.98

88. The Portuguese Explorers—CARAVELS OF CHRIST. by G. Renault. The history of the great 15th-century explorations that took Bartholomew Dias and Vasco da Gama on their incredible adventures to Ethiopia, India and the New World. Illus. Pub. at $5.00. Sale $1.00

89. THE PROUDEST DAY: Thomas Macdonough on Lake Champlain. by C. G. Muller. An illuminating biography of America's unsung Naval hero whose victory over the superior British forces on Lake Champlain in 1814 decided our nation's fate. Superb study of the men, the ships and climactic battle in what Churchill has called "the most decisive engagement of the War." Pub. at $5.75. Sale $1.49

G. AMERICAN MURDER BALLADS and their stories. by Olive Woolley Burt. The true bloody sagas of Jesse James, Lizzy Borden, John Wilkes Booth, Joe Hill, Hauptman and all the others whose stories have fascinated the public and inspired the balladeer. A definitive collection of words, music and tales of tribulation which is likely to become a classic in American folklore. Pub. at $5.50. Sale $1.98

90. COMPLETE BOOK OF CHESS STRATEGEMS. by Fred Reinfeld. Practical guidebook to successful strategy in the simultaneous attack and defence of the middle game, using 488 fascinating games from master play as examples. Pub. at $3.95. Sale $1.98

91. NEW HORIZON BOOK OF THE UNIVERSE. by Charles Hatcher. 32 full color plates, many photos. The awe-inspiring fascination of cosmic events—from explosion of stars to collision of galaxies. With complete planet charts and star maps for astronomical gazing. 8 1/2 x 11". Special $1.98

92. Desert of Destiny: SAHARA. by George Gerster. Here is its entire history—camels, caravans, nomadic tribes, mystics, oil strikes, Moslem culture, and modern political upheavals. 30 photos. Pub. at $5.00. Sale $1.98

93. AND LET THERE BE LIGHT. by Rudolf Thiel. Adventures and discoveries in astronomy from the star-gazing astrologers of Babylon and China to the astrophysicists of today—Copernicus, Bruno, Kepler, Galileo, Newton, Herschel, Einstein, etc. 70 photos and drawings. Pub. at $5.00. Sale $2.98

94. PRESENT-DAY PSYCHOLOGY. ed. by A. A. Roback. Forty authorities in every branch of psychology, from neurology to parapsychology, contribute original studies in this most comprehensive survey of the subject in English thus far. Illus. 995 pp. Pub. at $12.00. Sale $2.98

95. EGYPTIAN ART. 115 large, full page photographs and 43 color plates of beautiful sculpture and paintings from the rich collection of the Cairo Museum. Here are some of the finest examples of Egyptian art spanning almost 2000 years from pre-Dynastic times to the last stages of the glorious Empire, and representing all the phases of its development. In marble, wood, granite and paint the Egyptian artists achieved at times a perfection which almost remains unmatched to this day. Photos are by W. and B. Forman and the enlightening descriptive text by Malada Vilimkova. Introduction by Abd-ur-Rahman, curator of the Egyptian Museum in Cairo. Size 9 1/2 x 11". Imported. Only $9.95

96. LIFE UNDER THE MICROSCOPE—With 460 Captioned Photographs, 4 Full-Page Color Plates. By O. Jirovec et al. A beautiful volume on the microscope and its contribution to man's knowledge and control of nature, completely illustrating the infinite variety of forms found in nature's works of art, ranging from unicellular organisms to the structure of the individual organs in the higher animals and man. Briefly describes the different types of modern microscopes, pioneers in microscopy, etc. 9x12". Special $9.95

97. INDIAN SCULPTURE: Masterpieces of Indian, Khmer and Cham Art. Over 260 large photo-illustrations by W. & B. Forman, text by M. M. Deneck. A beautiful volume on Indian sculpture recording an artistic achievement that is at once sensual, lyrical and steeped in the compassionate and mystic influence of the great Indian religions. Admirably selected with an acute eye for detail and charm are such representative figures as the Buddha, Siva, Vishnu, Ganesa; serpent kings, horse gods, celestial dancers, female divinities; elephants, lions, sea monsters, monkeys. Included is a selection of the best work from Khmer and Cham. Detailed notes are provided for each of the fascinating plates, with a concise outline of the background that produced these masterpieces. Lavishly bound with gold stamping. 10x13". Special Import $12.95

98. The Midwest: LAND OF THE LONG HORIZON. ed. by Walter Havighurst, with over 100 historic illustrations. A stirring panorama of our Midwest from its discovery to its complex civilization 300 years later. Personal experiences of early missionaries, trappers, travelers, colonizers. Partial list of contributors: Audubon, Parkman, Clark, Sandburg, Dos Passos, Sinclair Lewis, Frank Lloyd Wright, etc. 8x11". Pub. at $12.50. Sale $4.98

99. ILLUSTRATION—THE REVOLUTION IN COLOR. The famous European art annual and collector's item. 53 superb plates in full color, 100 other fine reproductions within the text. 12 brilliant articles by leading critics on color in modern art from Monet to Pollock. 1960 Christmas issue (back numbers of these desirable annuals fetch up to $15.00). Was $5.95. Sale $3.98

100. GUNS OF THE OLD WEST. by Charles E. Chapel. The definitive work of the firearms that opened the frontier and conquered the American West—magnificently illustrated and documented in a huge encyclopedia of fact and legend; no collector of guns or Americana can afford to miss. Over 500 different guns illustrated by photos and scale drawings, plus scores of rare prints of life in the West, from the Revolution to the times of Teddy Roosevelt. Pub. at $12.50. Sale $6.95

101. THE PHILOSOPHY OF THE BED. by Mary Eden and Richard Carrington. The lore, literature and art of the bed in every age and culture—every morsel of curious and diverting information on sleeping, loving and languishing from the boudoirs of ancient Egypt to the electric blanket. 102 brilliant illustrations—rare prints, lounging nudes, strange devices, much more. Pub. at $5.95. Sale $2.98

102. The World of Archaeology—DIGGING FOR HISTORY. by Edward Bacon. Vivid, detailed accounts of excavations and discoveries all over the world from 1945 to 1959, including the market-place of ancient Athens, the original Wall of Jericho, the Dead Sea Scrolls and many other fantastic finds. Fascinating cultural, historical and aesthetic analyses, world-famous archaeologists at work, new carbon-dating techniques, etc. 63 pages of photos and drawings. Pub. at $10.00. Sale $4.98

103. LINCOLN AND THE PARTY DIVIDED. by E. F. Zornow. How Lincoln recouped the political and military failures of the North in the election of 1864 and saved the union from disintegration. Pub. at $4.00. Sale $1.98

H. SWINBURNE: A SELECTION. by Dame Edith Sitwell. An anthology of the controversial poet's finest work—"A Ballad of Life," "A Ballad of Death," "Madonna Mia," "Lines from Anactoria," "Atlanta in Calydon," "Laus Veneris," and others—with a critical discussion by the distinguished contemporary poet. Pub. at $5.95. Sale $1.98

104. NEW YORK—The Empire City. 177 photos by Don Hunstein, intro. by Stephen Potter. Unique views of people and places from Times Square to the Bronx, from the Waldorf to Greenwich Village and Harlem. Intimate portrait of the color, crowds, concrete—and spirit of the New Yorker's New York. Special $2.98

105. TROUBLED WOMEN. ed. by Lucy Freeman. Ten classic studies of the tortured inner lives of women, selected by the author of "Fight Against Fears." The distinguished contributors include Robert Lindner, Helene Deutsch, Harold Greenwald and Rudolph Loewenstein. Pub. at $5.00. Sale $1.98

106. Stuart Cloete's THE FIERCEST HEART. The great Boer trek of the 1830's from the Cape Colony to the African interior told in a pulsing, action-packed novel. 435 pp. Pub. at $4.95. Sale $1

107. GOODBYE TO UNCLE TOM. by J. C. Furnas. Finally and comprehensively demolishes the myths pertaining to the American Negro, from their origins to the misconceptions of today. "A definitive edition on the Negro in America and the actions which touch him... the work is encyclopedic." N.Y. Herald Tribune. Pub. at $7.50. Sale $1.98

108. NATHAN TROTTER, PHILADELPHIA MERCHANT, 1787-1853. by Elva Tooker. Trotter's success reflects the spectacular rise of American business from mercantilism to speculative capitalism during the stormy years of the industrial revolution, the Napoleonic wars and two major depressions. Pub. at $6.00. Sale $1.98

109. IRELAND HER OWN. by T. A. Jackson. An authoritative study of Ireland from her first subjugation by the English 800 years ago to the Partition in 1925—struggle for independence, liberation movements, great figures of Irish history. Pub. at $3.75. Sale $1.98

110. BORNEO PEOPLE. by Malcolm MacDonald. Told in a style worthy of Conrad, this is an affectionate, exciting account of a lush land by its former Governor-General. Describes its native tribesmen, white Rajahs, customs, manners, dances, head-hunters—with an account of the impact of modern civilization on a primitive world. 44 photos. Pub. at $5.50. Sale $2.98

KEELER'S... The University Bookstore

STATE COLLEGE

PHONE AD 8-0524