17 Guerrillas Captured During Hunt for Soldier

(P)—U.S. military advisers and from Vann not to fire unless fired upon. Vann said there was no need to use the weapons. South Viet Nam's jungle war yesterday and in a few hours captured 17 Red guerrillas without hours later. firing a shot.

major assigned to advise South Vietnamese troops.

THE VIETNAMESE forces had failed to return on schedule at dawn from a hunt for Communists their advisory roles and the cooks slipping away from nearby Ap Bac after a victorious guerrilla ambush Wednesday. "I'm not trying to fight these people's war for them," Vann said. "Our sole reason was to pro-(Continued then we fight tect that major.'

patrol returned in late morning, after Vann had sent out his own patrol. The major and the government

The American patrol had auto-

Telstar Ills Healed

NEW YORK (P)-Telstar, the television satellite, is back on the job, cured of a kind of brain fever

TAN HIEP, South Viet Nam1 matic weapons but had orders

The patrol left at 10 a.m. and returned with the prisoners 3½

Vann called on every Ameri-can assigned to the Vietnamese Shrugging off the usual non-combatant role, Col. John Paul Vann of El Paso, Tex., scraped a 60-man patrol together and sent the operation. He also ordered other American advisers passing through the area in the Mekong River delta to stand by as possible reinforcements.

Soon after their return, the Americans quickly reassumed went back to their field stoves.

(Continued from page one)

then we fight in the bush." Tshombe set up his headquarters in a house in the center of Kolwezi, another mining center where his air force is based.

Tshombe insisted his forces, routed from Elizabethville and Jadotville in less than a week, were still in fighting shape. But Porter reported that those he had seen on a journey from Elizabethville to Kolwezi via Jadotville were undisciplined, without hope

Announces Resignation Dean

WASHINGTON (P) — Ambas- tinu sador Arthur H. Dean announced ble.

He indicated he will continue to be interested in disarmament matters and said Secretary of

STATE

to de Tuuny

In CIREMASCORE and

Starting-

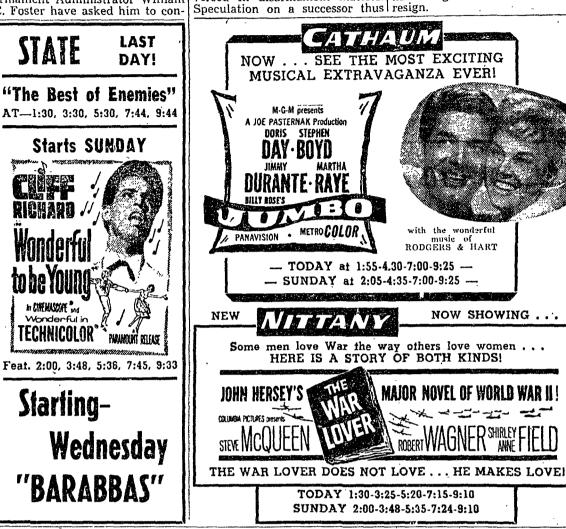

If President Kennedy accepts Dean's resignation—as expected —Charles C. Stelle is in line to carry on as acting head of the U.S. delegation at the 17-nation Geneva Disarmament Conference until a regular successor is named Stelle has been No

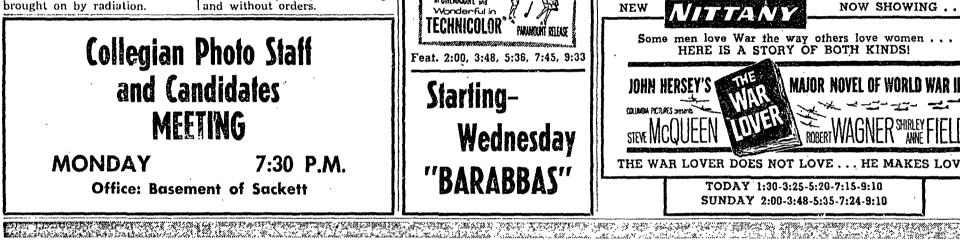

the lengthy Geneva talks have become so involved now that Dean's successor will have to be well

tinue to make his advice availa-| centered on high-ranking authorities already experienced in the field.

The stocky, flat-voiced Dean was an old hand at negotiating with the Reds when Kennedy picked him for the Geneva post shortly after the new administration took office. He was a U.S. representative in the truce talks which brought the Korean War armistice in 1953. Dean said a heavy backlog of personal business caused by his long absences while in Geneva versed in disarmament matters. had brought about his decision to downtown between the movies - ALWAYS OPEN

GOOD FOOD

OVER 30 YEARS CONTINUOUS SERVICE