

Pohland Returns to Lineup Against Maryland Saturday

Even though Penn State faces another tough test when it wrestles Maryland Saturday night at Rec Hall, Lion coach Charlie Speidel is wearing a big smile this week.

Cause for the current good feeling on the part of the long-time coach is the return of letterman Ed Pohland.

Pohland, the blond-haired "Miniature Tank" from Latrobe should give the Lions the big lift they need in the heavier weights.

And, just as important, his presence at practice session seems to instill new life into all the wrestlers.

Last year while grappling at both 191 and heavyweight, Pohland compiled a 5-2 record.

IN THE EASTERNS, he won three of five matches, losing only to the champion, Ed Scharer of Rutgers, 3-1, and to Bill Wood of Brown, 3-2.

Pohland was academically ineligible the first term and the Lions felt his loss in the lineup.

During his absence, State failed to win a single bout at either 191 or heavyweight. The best they could do was a 6-6 draw by Ed Fleming against John Burns of Lehigh Saturday night.

Pohland will return to face a Maryland team that vowed it would beat the Lions this year.

MARYLAND LOST to State 16-11 in a bout that saw Pohland end hopes of a Maryland victory in the heavyweight bout by crushing 250-pound Roger Shoals.

Terrapin coach "Sully" Krouse figured Shoals would have an easy prey in Pohland, but the Lion star had other ideas.

After a 4-4 first period, Pohland had the match in his hands. When the dust had cleared, the final score was an overwhelming 19-6.

Pohland came to State with good credentials, losing in his senior year only after he had reached the State finals.

He now tips the scales at 200 pounds, but hopes to lose enough weight so that he can wrestle in his favorite 191-pound spot.

As far as Speidel is concerned, it doesn't matter where Pohland wrestles. He's just glad to have him back. And Pohland is glad to be back.

Cincinnati Tops AP Poll

By JIM BECKER

Associated Press Sports Writer

Despite two national championships, it took two years for Cincinnati to climb to the top of the weekly Associated Press basketball poll, but it's beginning to look as if it will take almost as long to get the Bearcats off that rung.

The undefeated team which now has won 29 in a row over two seasons, was named the No. 1 college five in the nation for the sixth straight week in the latest AP rankings, based on votes from a panel of sportswriters and sportscasters.

They did it in convincing fashion, taking all 44 first place votes, for a perfect 440 point total.

ARIZONA STATE moved up a notch to third, with 256 points, followed by Ohio State and Illinois. The Illini dropped two births and Ohio State moved up one. Balloting closed after Saturday games, before Illinois rudely dumped the Buckeyes Monday on the Illini court, 90-78.

The rest of the top ten, in order, were Duke, Georgia Tech, Wichita, West Virginia and North Carolina.

The top ten, based on 10 points for a first-place vote, 9 for second, etc., with first-place votes in parentheses and won-loss records through Saturday:

	W	L	Pts.
1. Cincinnati (44)	11	0	440
2. Loyola Chicago	13	0	378
3. Arizona State	12	1	256
4. Ohio State	9	1	229
5. Illinois	9	1	220
6. Duke	10	2	200
7. Georgia Tech	9	0	133
8. Wichita	9	3	58
9. West Virginia	8	3	52
10. North Carolina	6	1	51
