

UCA To Sponsor Annual 'At Homes'

The University Christian Association will hold open house for all students from 3 to 5 p.m. every Friday during the term in the lounge of Helen Eakin Eisenhower Chapel, Clifford A. Nelson, assistant coordinator of religious affairs, said yesterday.

"The purpose of our At Homes is just to sit and talk," Nelson said. "We'll have music, an open fire, free refreshments and plenty of conversation."

In previous years, At Homes have proved popular, with about 75 to 100 students coming every Friday, Nelson said. Chaplains from various religious faiths will also be present, he said.

After World War I the Penn State Collegian was published twice a week with full-sized, eight-column format.

GOP Plans Inauguration Trip

Tickets for a bus trip to Harrisburg Tuesday for the inauguration of Gov.-elect William W. Scranton are on sale at the Republican Party Headquarters in State College.

Anyone interested may purchase a round-trip ticket for $3.50 which entitles him not only to transportation to and from Harrisburg but also insures his admittance to the Farm Show building where the inauguration ceremonies are to be held.

Tickets will be distributed on a "first come, first served" basis, Mrs. Donald Antes, member of the Centre County Republican Committee, said last night. Two hundred tickets are available.

Boalsburg Auto Bus Lines will leave The Corner Room on Tuesday at 7 a.m. The inauguration ceremonies are scheduled for noon. Republican Party Headquarters are located at 209 E. Beaver Ave. Tickets may be obtained from 10 a.m. to noon and from from 2 to 5 p.m.
