

Riflemen Drop 1st To Cadet Shooters

By ED CARPENTER

As the car sped along the New York highway, its five occupants sat just staring out the window. All that could be heard were the shrill sounds of a Chubby Checker record. It's a long seven-and-a-half-hour drive from West Point to State College, but it seemed longer than that. It always does after a defeat.

The Penn State rifle team had just departed from West Point after winding up on the short end of a 1444-1424 score. Despite the team's first loss of the season, coach Sgt. Joe Watson was pleased with the overall shooting of the team.

He pointed out that the average of the top five shooters was 285, about two points higher than in their previous two matches. In addition only two of the ten shooters failed to break 280.

Watson said that "with the limited practice and only two meets that the boys have had, I was very pleased with the showing. It shouldn't be long before our score hits 1430."

In his pre-meet prediction, the Lion coach figured that State stood a good chance of upsetting the Black Knights, if the Cadets didn't have a good day. As is indicated by the score, they did have one of those good days.

Included in the 1444 was a 295 and two-290's. The 295, shot by Bill Bradburn, tied an Academy record, while team captain Lou Sturbois and Al Chapman each contributed to the impressive victory with a 290. Rounding out the Cadets' top five scorers were Mike Wikan, 286, and John Ward, 283.

Leading the Lions in their losing attempt were Neil Anderson, with a score of 286, Warren Grossman and captain Rich Gogolkiewicz, with 285's, and Den Brumback and Walt Morrow, each with scores of 284.

Army coach Sgt. Oscar Gallman called the victory "a good one to win." The Cadet mentor said that he was quite concerned about the meet, having lost the services of one of his top shooters, John Hanningan.

Cincy Holds First Place In AP Poll

By The Associated Press

For the seventh straight week, ever since the season's start, Cincinnati's basketball team finished on top in The Associated Press poll. And for the third straight week, the steam-rolling Bearcats swept the boards, gathering up all 45 first place votes for a perfect 450 points.

If it weren't for the unbeaten Bearcats, who now have won 31 straight, 13 this season, No. 1 team honors undoubtedly would have gone to Loyola of Chicago, which owns an unblemished record through 15 games this season.

As it was, the high-scoring Ramblers had to be content with second place on 383 points.

Illinois' once-beaten quintet sputtered into third place on the strength of two Big Ten victories over highly rated Ohio State and Purdue. The Illini record is now 11-1.

The top ten, based on total points, allotting 10 for a first place team, 9 for second, 8 for third and down to 1 for tenth place vote, with first place votes in parentheses:

1. Cincinnati (45)	13 0 450
2. Chicago Loyola	15 0 383
3. Illinois	11 1 325
4. Arizona State	14 1 311
5. Duke	12 2 154
6. Ohio State	10 2 144
7. Georgia Tech	11 0 141
8. Wichita	11 3 107
9. West Virginia	10 3 78
10. Stanford	10 3 56

White Sox, Orioles Swap Six

CHICAGO (AP) — The Baltimore Orioles and Chicago White Sox, both disappointments last season, packaged a trade involving six players yesterday for their 1963 objective of dethroning the New York Yankees.

The Sox, who finished fifth in the 1962 American League race, departed with flashy Latin shortstop Luis Aparicio, 29, and slugging outfielder-infielder Al Smith, 34.

The Orioles, who shared seventh place with Boston, gave up pitcher Hoyt Wilhelm, 39; shortstop Ron Hansen, 24, 1960 A. L. rookie of the year; third baseman Pete Ward, 23, a .328 hitter for Rochester, second in the International League's 1962 batting race; and outfielder Dave Nicholson, 23, a $115,000 bonus baby five years ago.

Both clubs were pleased with the deal as mutually strengthening each other where it was needed.
