

Outing Club Dominates Ski Races

The Penn State Outing Club Ski Division dominated the slalom races at Skimont Saturday by sweeping all three first places and eight of the nine trophies awarded in a meet against the Pittsburgh Intercollegiate Ski Association.

Jo Ganong, Richard Sahey and Tom Cannon captured first places for the Outing Club in competition against skiers from Pitt, Duquesne, Chatham, Carnegie Tech, Washington and Jefferson and Shady Side.

The affair was part of a Ski Fest weekend sponsored by the Outing Club. In addition to the races, a banquet and a dance was held at the Holiday Inn.

The Outing Club will hold a return engagement meet with the ski association at Seven Springs, near Ligonier, Feb. 10.

Other place finishers for the Outing Club were Wulf Knausenberger, Bill Barney, Ron Stein and Myrna Lloyd.
