

Fencers Nip Temple In Season's Opener

Special to the Collegian
PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 30—The Penn State fencing team opened its 1963 season here this afternoon by stopping Temple, 15-12. The meet went down to the next-to-the-last bout as State gained the decisive fourteenth point when sophomore epeeist Fred Davis beat the Owls' Jeff Ham, 5-4. Chuck Dooley, number three sabreman, was the Lions' top fencer today, sweeping all three of his bouts, 5-1, 5-0, 5-3. Four other Nittany swordsmen were double winners. Chick Poole turned the trick in sabre, John Cooper and Ken Vandenburg each took a pair in foil and Davis won two epee bouts. Al Gallo, Temple's outstanding foilman, caused State the most trouble as he won all three of his bouts, 5-3, 5-0, 5-3.
