

Defending Champs Win IM Swim Meet

By DENNIS KNECHT

Sigma Pi, defending intramural swimming champion, took the first stroke in retaining its title by downing Theta Chi, 24-17, in a thrilling, near-even meet at Glennland Pool last night.

In other matches, Delta Upsilon defeated Delta Sigma Phi, 25-16, with an easy victory in the final event, the 120-yd. relay, while Acacia defeated Alpha Zeta, 27-14. Acacia is the only team to have won two meets, beating Sigma Alpha Mu last week. Sigma Pi and DU drew byes in the first round.

THETA CHI battled Sigma Pi evenly, right down to the home stretch. With only the relay event remaining, Sigma Pi held a slim 19-17 edge. Theta Chi almost managed to pull it out, but a strong final surge by Dieter Heinze on the anchor leg gave Sigma Pi the laurels. Heinze also won the breaststroke with a good time of 40.8.

Norm Allan won the freestyle and Joe Simonetta, the backstroke, to pace Theta Chi. Ben Buchanan won the diving event for Sigma Pi, followed closely by Allan.

Other members of the winning relay team were Ed Skodol, Joe Bolitsky and Charlie Falcone.

Acacia's impressive victory over Alpha Zeta was sparked by four first places, while losing only the relay. Guy Jackson won the freestyle, Bruce Trotman took the backstroke, Bob Ormsby won the breaststroke and Larry Wolfe placed first in the diving competition.

DU's RELAY team of Carl Nelson, Bill Bush, Frank Madel and Bill Floyd proved the difference in their meet, which up to that race was in doubt. Delta Sig's Ed Klein took care of any DU hopes for a rout by scoring a double win, the backstroke and breaststroke.

Ed Heilbrun won the diving competition for DU, scoring 16 points.

Sharpshooters Drop 3rd of Season

Nittany Lion rifle coach Sgt. Joe Watson must be starting to wonder what it's like to win a rifle match. After winning its first four matches of the campaign, the State rifle team has now dropped three in a row. The latest defeat came Saturday against the Naval Academy, 1424-1411, at the rifle range.

paced by captain Rich Gogolkiewicz, who fired a 284. The other four scorers were Den Brumbach, 283; Chuck Nagel, 282; and Warren Grossman and Walt Morrow, who each had a score of 281.

The Lions, coming up with their low team score of the season, couldn't capitalize on a low Navy score. In fact the Middies' score was the lowest turned in by the three squads who have beaten the riflemen this season.

The high score for Navy was a 289 by Den Johnson. Behind him came Ken Longway, 286; Mike Caputo, 284; Clark Jones, 283, and Ted Franklin, 282.

Once again the Lions were

Nicklaus Routs Player In Palm Springs Playoff

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP)—National Open champion Jack Nicklaus, turning the match into a rout when Gary Player blew himself to a triple bogey 7 on the 12th hole, won the Palm Springs Golf Classic yesterday in an 18-hole playoff with the South African star.

The 23-year-old Nicklaus coasted in to win the extra-round duel by eight strokes with a 34-31-65 and Player a 36-37-73.
