Weir Captures 2 Events To Pace Chi Phi Victory

By STEVE FRANKLIN

Sam Weir, Chi Phi's leading swimmer and proud owner of two IM swimming crowns, torpedoed his challengers last night at Glennland Pool.

As Weir swept both of his events, his teammates added the depth necessary to wallop Phi Sigma Kappa, 30-6. In other action, Phi Gamma Delta downed Kappa Sigma, 30-9, and Kappa Delta Rho beat Phi Kappa Sigma, 24-17.

After gliding to an easy victory in freestyle, Weir came back to win the breast stroke. His time in the freestyle was .2 seconds off his record of 30.7. Chi Phi allowed its opponents no first places and only one second.

Chi Phi's Rick Henford, Wayne Mulholland, Ron Carpenter and Dave Hackman recorded a time of 1:06.4 in the relay event.

IN THEIR ROMP over Kappa Sigma, Phi Gamma Delta swept practically every first place.

Phi Gam took an early lead over the Kappa Sigs as Jay Stormer churned through the water to capture the 60-yard freestyle in 34.2. Later Stormer won the breast stroke in 41.6 seconds.

Kappa Delta Rho and Phi Kappa Sigma split the first two events in their meet before KDR settled down to business. Kappa Delta Rho's freestyler sped through the water in 33 seconds flat.

After a split in the diving event, KDR led 19-17. The all-important relay event was lost by Phi Kappa Sig's third man when he swam out of his lane. This crucial loss of seconds proved enough for the KDR quartet to win the relays.

AFTER THE MEET, IM director Dutch Sykes said that the performances promised a rough season — "especially rough if anyone expects to break the records, too."

In this second week of the IM swimming, times have improved, according to Sykes. For instance in last night's meet, the three swimmers finishing behind Weir in freestyle were less than two lengths behind the record holder. The new rule about using a

Cincinnati Still Reigns in AP Poll

By WILL GRIMSLEY

Associated Press Sports Writer
The unbeaten Cincinnati Bearcats are getting their second wind in their bid for a third straight national college basketball championship.

Named No. 1 in The Associated Press poll for the 10th straight week yesterday, Coach Ed Juckers' defensive specialists shattered any idea that they might be growing stale by trouncing Drake 71-60.

THE VICTORY Monday night over a team that had carried the champs into overtime five days earlier was the 18th in a row for the Bearcats this season and the 36th straight without defeat over a 2-year span.

Although holding a strong edge over second place Loyola of Chicago, also undefeated in 20 games, Cincinnati's Coach Jucker was keeping his fingers crossed. "We've still got games left with Bradley, Wichita, North Texas State, Tulsa and St. Louis," Jucker said. "In this league (Missouri Valley Conference) anybody can beat you."

CINCINNATI received 42 of the 44 first place votes from a special panel of sports writers and broadcasters in The Associated Press poll and amassed 430 points on the basis of ten for a first place vote, nine for second, etc.

The top ten with first place votes in parentheses (records based on games through Saturday, Feb. 2):

	W.	L.	Pts.
1. Cincinnati (42)	17	0	438
2. Loyola of Chicago (1)	20	0	378
3. Duke (1)	15	2	303
4. Illinois	12	2	291
5. Arizona State	16	2	204
6. Georgia Tech	16	1	203
7. Colorado	12	3	125
8. Mississippi State	14	3	98
9. Wichita	15	5	66
10. Stanford	12	4	46
