

Wrestlers End Two-Week Layoff Against 'Weak' Virginia Tech Team

By JIM BUKATA

Tomorrow's wrestling match at Blacksburg, Va., against VPI shapes up as little more than a good workout by Penn State for next week's big bout against unbeaten Syracuse.

Although VPI has been the powerhouse of the Southern Conference for the past few years, its calibre of wrestling doesn't begin to compare to that of the Lions.

"We've had a problem getting teams to wrestle," State coach Charlie Speidel said in his office yesterday. "We had to find matches with someone and they were willing to meet us."

Last year, State crushed the Gobblers, 27-2, in Rec Hall, yet VPI coach Frank Teske was happy about the meeting between his team and the Lions.

"WE'VE DONE most of our wrestling in the Southern Conference and the competition just isn't as rough as it is up here," Teske said after the meet. "Even though we got beat by a big score, I think we gained a lot of good experience."

The experience the Gobblers gained must have been helpful, for they waltzed to an easy team title in the Southern Conference Tourney.

This year, however, things have

Nittanies Receive 'Old Ironsides' Again

"Old Ironsides," the massive trophy which is symbolic of the Penn State-Pitt-West Virginia round-robin grid championship, was awarded to Penn State by the Pittsburgh Junior Chamber of Commerce Wednesday at a luncheon in Pittsburgh.

The trophy was accepted by Jim Tarman, the Nittany Lions' director of sports publicity and assistant coach Joe Paterno.

The Lions' 16-0 victory over Pitt and their 34-6 win over West Virginia gave them undisputed title to the trophy for the third consecutive year.

hit rock bottom for VPI. The Gobblers have lost five straight bouts and were shutout by Navy, 31-0.

The Lions, who have not wrestled for two weeks, are "lucky" according to Speidel that they are wrestling the Gobblers this week.

"We have three tough bouts coming up after this one," Speidel said. "And coming off this layoff, I'm glad that we aren't facing one of the better teams."

AFTER TOMORROW'S afternoon match, the Lions face nationally-ranked Syracuse, ever-improving Pitt and a strong Rutgers squad.

Three Tie for Phoenix Lead

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—National Open champion Jack Nicklaus, Gary Player and Jay Hebert led the $35,000 Phoenix Open golf tournament by a skimpy stroke after shooting the first round in 5-under-par 67s yesterday.

Right on their heels at 68 were Arnold Palmer, seeking his third straight Phoenix title, Jimmy Clark, Bob Harris, Tommy Aaron and veteran Julius Boros and Cary Middlecoff.

Ten others were bunched another stroke back as more than one-third of the 162-man field bettered the 72-par of the flat 6,679-yard Arizona Country Club course.

But for last hole troubles, either Nicklaus or the man he beat in the Palm Springs title playoff Monday, Player, could have taken the lead alone.

Player drove into a tree on the par 5 18th, preventing him from reaching the green in two. He still had a chance for a birdie but missed a 4-foot putt.
