

Rabbi To Speak Tonight At Brotherhood Banquet

Rabbi Elias Charry, of the Germantown Jewish Center in Philadelphia, will be the principal speaker at the annual Brotherhood Banquet at 6 p.m. tonight in the Hetzel Union ball room.

The Rabbi's address will be entitled "The New Emancipation Proclamation." The University Committee on Inter-Religious Affairs is sponsoring the banquet.

MOIEKO AND AKIKO Yashiro will entertain with Japanese children's songs and the Penn State Men's Glee Club will provide music for the program.

Active for many years in Zionist educational and communal endeavors, Charry has been a member of the National Administrative Committee of the Zionists' Organization of America and of the United Jewish Appeal. He has served as president of the Indianapolis Zionist District and the Ohio Valley Zionist Region. He is currently vice-president of the Philadelphia Zionist District and
