

TODAY ON CAMPUS

Applications

Applications for the Undergraduate Student Government Encampment must be returned by 5 p.m. to the Hetzel Union desk.

Applications for Town Crier business manager are due by 5 p.m. at the HUB desk.

Brunch

Sloppy Sam's Midnight Bean Brunch, sponsored by the Newman Club, will be held at 8 p.m. at the Catholic Center, 531 W. Fairmount Ave. Admission is free to members and guests.

Movie

"Schlieren," a film demonstrating the application of black and white schlieren techniques to aerodynamic research in a high-speed wind tunnel, will be shown at 4 p.m. in 232 Hammond.

Other Events

Biophysics Seminar in Photobiology, 11:10 a.m., 300 Walker.
Cosmopolitan Club, 7:30 p.m., HUB assembly room.

Interfraternity Council, 6 p.m., 213 HUB.

Interlandia, 7:30 p.m., HUB ballroom.

Keystone Alumni Association, 7 p.m., 109 Boucke.

Mineral Industries Colloquium, 3:45 p.m., Mineral Industries auditorium.

Photography Discussion, 1 p.m., HUB assembly room.

Revised Women's Rules Set for Fall

The set of women's regulations as revised by the Association of Women Students' Senate and approved by the dean of women's office will go into effect next fall, Patti McGill, chairman of the AWS Rules and Revision committee, said recently.

The major changes have been in dress code liberalization, Miss McGill said. Bluejeans are still considered inappropriate dress for the dining hall; however, denim bermudas, slacks and skirts will be permitted. COATS, GYM suits and scarves have also been termed improper attire for the dining hall.

A proposal suggesting that bermudas and slacks be considered inappropriate in administrative buildings and offices was stricken from the revised code, leaving the matter up to the coed's discretion, Miss McGill said.

OTHER MAJOR changes involved traveling permissions.

The AWS Senate decided that coeds visiting overnight in the State College area will not be permitted to use the 1 a.m. traveling permission.

The revised code states that traveling permissions in the area will be 11:30 p.m. This regulation was added, Miss McGill said, because coeds are taking unnecessary travel permissions.

Two minor changes in the regulations include a definition of overnight, which is any night spent in a 30-mile radius of University Park, and a sample sign-out sheet which will be added to the Penn State Woman, the AWS booklet.

WEST HALLS... COUNCIL PRESENTS!

"Midnight Lace"
starring
Dorris Day
and Rex Harrison
in Color
also a
Laurel & Hardy
Short
Waring Lounge
7:30
10c per person
FRI. and SAT.

THE YAKIMS

The B'nai B'rith Hillel Foundation

proudly presents

The Yakims

Israeli Pantomimists
Students of Marcel Marceau

and

Mira Gilbert

with Folk Songs from
Israel, France, Russia
England, etc.

SATURDAY... MAY 25

9:00 P.M.

Admission at the Door
Hillel Members $1.00 Non-Members $1.50

USG Spring ARTS FESTIVAL

MAY 24

MAY 25

MAY 26

10 a.m.-5 p.m.—Photography and Architecture exhibition and sale sponsored by the Penn State Camera Club and A.I.A. (HUB Court).

1 p.m.—Lecture: "The Art of Photography" HUB Court.

2:30—Slide Lecture: "The Philosophy of Architecture." Dr. Carl Barnes, Professor of A.A.H. HUB Assembly Room.

4 p.m.—Symposium of the arts: "Expression and Interpretation". Should one view art according to the artist's expression or his own interpretation? Theatre—Dr. Walter Walters; Painting—Dr. Samuel Sabian; A.A.H.—Chadwick Hansen; Music—Dr. Leonard Raver; Moderator—Mimi Monoker. HUB Assembly Room.

8 p.m.—"An Evening of Student Drama" Two original one-act plays written for the 5 o'clock Theatre plus a performance by The Arts Company. "A Family in Unison"—by Dianne Lamb, and "A Far-Away Garden"—by Nancy James. Scenes from "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof" by The Arts Company. Pavilion Theatre, tickets at HUB desk May 20-24.

10 a.m.-5 p.m.—Clothes-line exhibition and art sale. HUB Terrace, sponsored by Art and Architecture Student Council. A chance to sell and buy student works.

1:30-3:30—Informal Jazz concert at the art sale courtesy of The Penn State Jazz Club, featuring The Jazz Spokesmen.

2:00 2:30-3:00—Modern interpretative dance to a Jazz background by members of the Modern Dance Club: Kathy Britt, Carol Marci, Ginny Bechtel.

2:45-3:15-3:45—Poetry reading by members of The University Readers, "A Montage of a Dream Deferred"—by Langston Hughes and a soliloquy by Juyne Kaupp.

Noon-5 p.m.—Modern Art Fence Paint, HUB Lawn. Come and paint an abstract painting courtesy of T.I.M. which will sponsor all art supplies. Open to groups or individuals. Cash prizes for the best product.

8:15—Schubert's "Mass in G" and "Jepthe" by Carissimi performed by the Meditation Chapel Choir directed by Mr. James Beech. Schwab Auditorium.

Jazz Mass—May 29 at 9:15 p.m. in the Eisenhower Chapel sponsored by the Canterbury Club of St. Andrews Episcopal Church.

3 p.m.—University Symphony Orchestra Concert, Mr. Theodore Karhan conducting Mozart's "Concerto for Violin and Viola," "Overture to Lorelei," and other numbers by Smetana, Korngold, and Klaus. Schwab Auditorium.

8 p.m.—Student Artists Series Concert, Old Main front lawn. A concert under the stars a la Newport with Dr. Leonard Raver announcing student performances of the classical and contemporary arts. Bring your own blankets, pillows, and folding chairs. Usherettes for the concert courtesy of Cwens, women's hat society, and Miss Penn State finalists. Head Usherette: Miss Penn State—Patti Phillips.

All the preceding events will be held in Schwab Auditorium Sunday night or postponed until Monday night in case of inclement weather. Watch Saturday's Collegian for further information.