The Baily Collegian

Published Tuesday through Saturday morning during the University year. The Daily Collegian is a student-operated newspaper, Entered as second-class matter July 5, 1934 at the State College, Pa. Post Office under the act of March 3, 1879. Mail Subscription Price: $7.90 a year

Member of The Associated Press

JOHN R. THOMPSON Editor

DIANNE NAST Business Manager

City Editors, Den Knecht and Deb Stoddard; Sports Editor, John Lott; News and World Affairs Editor, Tudi Matejczyk; News and Features Editor, Judy Mathe; Personnel Director, Anne Doll. Co-Local Advertising Managers, Robert Sayers and Diane Specht; Co-Credit Managers, Arthur Rapp and Mark Salizman; Promotion and Classified Advertising Manager, Stephen Fiverson; Circulation Manager, Richard Weissman; Office Manager, Patricia Skuria; National Advertising Manager, Geraldine Piechowski.

PAGE TWO

THURSDAY, JANUARY 21, 1965

Editorial Opinion

No Decision

This week's referendum on the abolition of the Undergraduate Student Government proved two

The vast majority of University students do not care enough about student government to even express their opinions on its abolition.

A small majority of persons in student government want all-campus government to survive, although they agree it has failed in the past.

We had presented an alternative plan for student government at Penn State. We stirred up those who are inferested in student government, but we proved that most students are not.

The margin by which USG survived is a lesson for all student government leaders of the future. It is a lesson that USG or any future all-campus government must be alive and interested in the student welfare. USG presently is not, but the 2,500 students who voted for its survival have concretely expressed their conviction that it can be.

USG has a long way to go, but the controversy of the past two weeks has pushed it along that path. We have stimulated thought in student government. We feel we were successful.

Open Forum

In a society which rallies to cries of, "Freedom of speech!" it seems strange that debates-perfect showcases for this "freedom"-evoke so little interest. Unfortunately, an exception to the rule is not to be found at University Park.

On Sunday night, the Hetzel Union ballroom was less than half-filled for a debate between Benjamin Novak, president of the Undergraduate Student Government, and Collegian editor John R. Thompson. East Halls residents were reluctant to listen to their USG Congressional candidates before "Bonanza" had

This debate, re-scheduled after the first attempt drew no audience, was eventually attended by only six students.

Such flagrant disinterest has no place in a unlversity community. Indeed, a university community can take no pride in those who exhibit it.

Important, interesting, intelligent issues are raised daily-on campus, in Washington, around the world. Are we to follow blindly those with the most expensive propaganda techniques, or shall we insist on hearing both sides to better arrive at individual conclusions? In a democracy, we reserve the right to Believe it or not, Penn State has more than its share of future leaders-students well-informed on various issues of specific interest to their fellows. In addition, we have a faculty and administration wellversed in topics of both national and international significance. Why not permit these people to share their knowledge?

Debates provide a golden opportunity for the fair exchange of ideas, but they cannot be scheduled until they are asked for. We urge students who care to seek the issues and ask that their fine points be

Speak to your student representatives or those who serve on your college councils, but be willing to take the initiative, if necessary, in calling for a debate. We need more of them.

TODAY ON CAMPUS

Angel Filight Drill Team, 7 p.m., 217
Hetzel Union Building.
Applications for fall 1965 Women's Orientation leaders available at HUB desk until Jan, 27.
Association of Women Students, 6:15, 212 HUB.
Christian Science Organization, 6:15 p.m., Helen Eakin Eisenhower Chapel. Pinch. 218 HUB.
Committee on Student Organizations, 1:30 p.m., 218 HUB.
1:30 p.m., 218 HUB.
1:30 p.m., 218 HUB.
1:44 Boucke, 1.15 p.m., Hub assembly room.
1:50 p.m., 18 home Ec.
1:50 p.m., Hub Teading room.
1:50 p.m., 218 HUB.
1:50 p.m., 218 HUB.
1:50 p.m., 5 p.m., Hub reading room.
214 Boucke, 1.50 p.m., 5 p.m., 5 p.m., 5 p.m., 18 home 12 p.m., 218 home 14 p.m., 218 home 15 p.m., 18 home 15 p.m., 18 home 15 p.m., 18 home 15 p.m., 19 home 15 p.m., 19 p.m.

WDFM Schedule

4:15 The Phliadelphia (Bob Solosko) 5:00 Classical Cameos 5:55 News (Jc.in Rosenbaum) 6:00 Collage: The University Readers 6:15 Evening Moods (Lynn Hopewell) 7:25 News (Stan Lathan) 7:30 Showcase 15

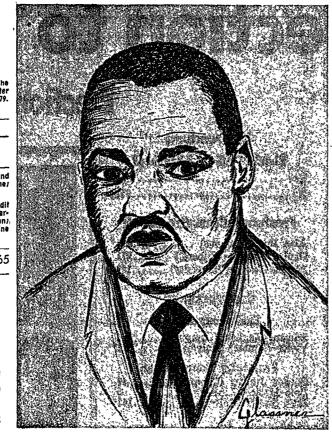

7:45 Weekend Preview 7:45 Waekeno Preview
8:00 Music
8:25 Artists and Lecture Series:
Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.
(Ted Lux announcing)
9:30 Music ¼
10:00 Symphonic Notebook
12:00 News

The Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

allons au cinema-

Seek Elsewhere!

"The Pleasure Seekers" In the first scene in which Carol Lynley, Ann-Margret, and Pamela Tiffin appear together in this film, I was reminded of the opening scene in "Macbeth." Remember those three ugly witches? Well, they're back, long hair, dagger-sharp fingernails, pancake makeup and all in this, the first bad film of 1965.

In effect, "The Pleasure Seekers" does have a lot going for it. There is Jean Negu-lesco, a once reputable director; Gene Tierney; Brian Keith; some gorgeous shots of Spain. But, it still stinks to YOUNG high heaven! All the bad things said about Hollywood become sickingly apparent in this tasteless and gaudy bore with which 20th Century-Fox has attacked us. The genius of flamenco dancer, Antonio Gades, is ridiculed and put to shame when Miss Margret attempts to do a few steps with him. She hasn't any talent at all, and why producers still put up with her is way beyond me, as cynical as I am toward Hollywood, notwithstanding.

And there is that fine actor, Tony Franciosa, who must have suffered throughout the entire affair as the Iberian playboy who chases Miss Lyn-ley about in sportscars. Gene Tierney is wasted, along with Brian Keith, playing husband and wife.

Back to that crowning dreg,

Clemson Argues NovakStatement

TO THE EDITOR: I would like to say, as Mr. Novak has said. it would be necessary to have a building and full time man-agement in order to have a "student" or University operated bookstore, and it would be necessary to secure a loan to begin operations.

However, I don't see why it would be necessary to sell books at the same price that Keeler's and Metzger's are selling them. Keeler's and Metzger's are making a profit on

I don't claim to know how much profit, but profit there is or they would not be selling textbooks! A University or student operated bookstore would have no need for profit . . therefore cheaper books!

-Richard R. Clemson, '68

A ONE TIME BARGAIN

SAVE 30%

OFF ALL SKI JACKETS

SEE OUR FINE

QUALITY LIGHT

WEIGHT SKI JACKETS IN THE

LATEST SHADES

AND STYLES

TRY THIS

STRETCH

SKI

inside . . . SAVE 30%

THIS FINE JACKET FITS VERY CLOSE TO THE BODY BUT GIVES ALL THE FREEDOM

YOU NEED. LOOK FOR THE HIDDEN HOOD. NOW 30% OFF Just received another shipment of the ORIGINAL RAT FINK JACKET — for men and women, made.

of Borg Acrilan Acrylic that is 28 degrees warmer

by vince young

Ann - Margret, however; someone in the theatre last night remarked that she is possibly the ugliest mammal on the face of the earth. She certainly doesn't photograph well from any angle; and as to her homely status, she is given tough competition from the other two, Lynley and

. . Anyhow, there are very few reasons why anyone should see this film, even fewer ones for mentioning it, and absolutely none for discussing it any further. So, I won't.

Those of you who have heard the rumor about Flash Gordon have heard correctly. Due to several legal complications concerning the copyrights of this Universal serial, all episodes have been withdrawn from non-theatrical distribution. However, "Nickelodeon Nights" will continue as planned, sans Buster Crabbe, but funda-mentally the same.

Letters Prohibition Lift Asked By SENSE

TO THE EDITOR: I, along with my fellow members of SENSE, Students for Peace, am greatly disturbed by the unfortunate remarks made by our University President, Eric A. Walker, concerning the Berkeley free speech move-

We deplore his anti-intellectual attitude and his poorly disguised attempt to label as Communist the genuine ex-pression of student grievances.

We give our whole-hearted support to the Berkeley students, and we commend the Berkeley faculty for their enlightened support of the students and their aims.

We would remind our fellow students that the right of campus organizations to collect funds on campus for offcampus activities, the denial of which resulted in the Berkeley demonstrations, is also denied to the students of Penn

We urge the immediate lifting of this unrealistic and unnecessary prohibition, and we invite others to join us in calling for this long overdue reform.

> -James Grant, Graduate Student

Willing To Die'

of it a brotherhood."

As the social revolution of our day breaks human bar-riers and sweeps away the old age of division, King expresses confidence that the vic-tory achieved will be more than black and white integra-tion; it will be a double victory, for freedom will come

the former slave and a change of heart shall encom-

His philosophy is simple,

"If a man hasn't discovered something he is willing to die for, he isn't fit to live," he pro-

It is unthinkable that a man claims.

why he is great.

The Rev. Martin Luther to proclaim to his brother, "I King, Jr., who speaks tonight can never be what I ought to be until you're what you in Rec Hall, is an overwhelmought to be. He adds, "Man through his ing personality. If you have never heard If you have never heard scientific genius has made of this contemporary man of his- the world a neighborhood. tory, prepare for an encounter Now we are challenged by our tory, prepare for an encounter ethical commitment to make with yourself. King will bring you out of your synthetic world of prejudice into an experi-ence with reality, a reality that startles because it is personal, If he were politician, King would be out standing, for he THOMPSON pass the white man. presents a powerful image of a man fighting for his beliefs. His philosophy is yet deeply perceptive. He speaks extemporaneously, drawing from his vast intellect and formal education to bypass the usual routes of human communication. But King is more than a such as this should be slug-politician. Perhaps because he ged in Selma. It is unthinkis a clergyman, his speeches able that he should have to are touched with a deep awareness of humanity. He touches the human heart at its unthinkable, but that is shambar of calf chamber of self.

King is controversial be-cause he is contemporary. He has grasped the significance of our present-day encounter and communicated it into the hearts of men through social action.

King is a revolutionary figure. He proclaims the revolutionary gospel of our time to help men grasp the meaning of the rapid change in which Persons who cannot change with the changing complexion of our society are like Rip Van Winkle, who slept through the American Revolution, King asserts.

"A great many people find themselves in an age of change and ... fail to remain awake through the revolu-tion", he has said.

For King, all life is interrelated. Our society has been caught up in a garment of mutuality, which forces one

DATES THE PROPERTY OF THE PROP LETTER POLICY

Letters to the editor must carry the full name of the author and identification of the author will be verified before any letter is published.

In most cases letters over 400 words will not be published. The Daily Collegian reserves the right to edit or condense any letter. The decision to publish or reject a letter lies solely with the editor; letters containing obvious misstatements or lacking good taste or fair play will be rejected.

Marine Commercial Comm

SIGN-UPS

For Crew Positions

THESPIANS ALL DES STATEMENT OF THE STATEMENT OF TH

THE MUSIC MAN

THURSDAY, FRIDAY, SATURDAY

HUB

Ground Floor

THE ARTS AND ARCHITECTURE STUDENT COUNCIL NEEDS

INTERESTED STUDENTS TO

ARCH. - MUSIC - L. ARCH. THEATRE - ARTS - ART HIST.

CALL ROB AT S.A.E. FOR DETAILS

STUDENT FLIGHTS TO EUROPE BY JET

$325.00 Round Trip

(Based on 25 or more)

FOR PENN STATE STUDENTS and FACULTY

ALL DEPARTURES WITH SCHEDULED AIRLINES

1st Departure

"A" Flt., TWA, Lv. New York, June 15 Lv. London, September 8

2nd Departure

"B" Flt., Pan Am, Lv. New York, June 21 Lv. London, September 7

3rd Departure

"C" Flt., Air India, Lv. New York, June 21 Lv. London, August 16

For Information-

Gall: Steve Hicks 238-4439 Willie Miller 238-9135

Dave Yankowitz 238-3493

