Frosh Booters Beat Bisons, 3-1

Collegian Sports Writer The Lon freshman booters continued their winning ways yeste day with a 3-2 victory over the Bisons of Bucknell. By winning at Lewisburg Penn State's yearling outfit od their season record to 3-0 Forward lineman Ron Weitz started the scoring for the State eleveh as he received a 20-yard cross-field pass from the right side of the field and pounded the ball into the

But the Bisons were determined to make the Lions work, as Dave Armstrong, a Bucknell inside, penetrated the Nittany defense and scored on a rebound off the Penn State goal post.

The tie was quickly erased in the second quarter as State inside Dave Stock drilled home a loose ball which was bouncing around in front of the Bison goal.

Play tllroughout the second quarter was rough, but neither squad was able to penetrate the other's goal, so halftme say the State soccermen enjoying a 2-1 spread.

It was Fon Weitz who provided the game-deciding scoring punch for the Lions as he scored again on a pass from .

Dan Glatthern.

Armstrong, who had himself a fine game, scored his second tally of the day for the losing Bisons in the fourth period, but he game ended without any further scoring.
The score reflected an excellent soccer game, one which saw continu us oftensive movement by both sides, Coach Jim Gallagher said, extremely relieved by the final outcome. "I don't think we played as well as we are capable of playing," he said. "The game was marked by rough, bruising contact between the players; in this type of soccer game, victory is always quite pleasing."

Ruggers Face Tigers

Rug gers Face Tigers

By BRIAN HEALY

Collegian Sports Writer

The Penn State Rugby Football Club stands a chance of contracting a bad case of poison ive today as they take on Princeton University today at the Tiger's field.

Shooting for their second win, the ruggers will be facing a team which they have never beaten. Rugby in the Pay League is taken extremely seriously and has been played for many years, bringing about a sort of tradition to the game. With this type of competition starting him bleakly in the face, one would think that the Lions' coach, Charle Smith, as many vears, bringing about a sort of tradition to the game. With this type of competition starting him bleakly in the face, one would think that the Lions' coach, Charle Smith, as a semi-prince for finite as minimal ways as they defeated a semi-professional rugby team from Philadelphia head to head and would have conceivably won the game if British Olympian Dave Segal helm't suddenly turned in one of the fine and thought of by many as a "breather" for the Hawks. The Lions ran St. Joe's off of the field with an impressive 12-6 win.

Added to his is the fact that "the boys are even better" as Smith puts 1. "and are improving every day."
