

Rainsoaked Baseballers Down WVU 2-1

By DON MCKEE

Collegian Sports Writer

Yesterday afternoon was wet, muddy, cold and windy but even the worst possible playing conditions could not dampen the spirit of Penn State's baseball team. The Lions hustled, scrambled and fought from behind to down West Virginia by a 2-1 score.

Rain fell throughout the game and play was halted for a few minutes after the fourth inning. The umpires allowed play to continue however, and State scored twice in the eighth to extend its winning streak to four games.

The game was a tight duel for five innings between State starter Phil Williams and Jerry Meadows; the Mountaineer starter, Meadows gave up a single to Dave Fore in the first inning and then proceeded to set the Lions down hitless for the rest of his five inning stint.

Astros' Draft Choice
Meadows' record is 5-1 on the year and his pitching has been so impressive that he was picked by the Houston Astros in the college draft. He was not involved in the decision today.

Williams' pitching, while not as spectacular, was just as effective. The senior right hander scattered six hits and the Mountaineers' only run was unearned.

West Virginia broke the scoreless deadlock in the top of the sixth. With one out Bucky Guth walked first on a throwing error by Lion third baseman Steve Bazzanic and went to second on an infield out. Jim Clay brought home the run with a single to right.

State's game winning rally came in the eighth inning against Mike Moschel who was now on the mound for the Mountaineers. John Featherstone walked to lead off the frame. Dick Dreher was sent in to pinch-hit for Williams. Dreher attempted to bunt and having failed twice, swung away and lined a single to left.

Farrell Franks was the next batter. He laid down a perfect bunt, so good that Moschel did not reach the ball in time to make a throw. The sacks were now loaded with no one out. Bazzanic drove in the tying run when he singled sharply to left on the first pitch.

Fore Raps Winning Hit
That was all for Moschel. Mountaineer coach Steve Harrick summoned Denny Taylor from the bull pen. Fore greeted Taylor with the game winning hit, a single, which drove in Dreher with the decisive run.

Jim Allgyer retired the visitors in order in the top of the ninth to preserve the victory as Williams gained his third win without a loss yesterday. He has pitched impressively all season beating Juniata, in relief and Indiana in his first starting assignment. He also tossed three scoreless innings in relief against Villanova.

Fore had two hits and an RBI in three official trips to the plate, showing signs of coming out of his hitting slump. The junior raised his average to .314 on the strength of yesterday's performance.

Another Cassius?
Yesterday's game proved that another Clay—not Cassius—should keep his mouth shut more often.

Jim Clay, the WVU clean-up hitter poked a weak infield hit in his first time at bat. In his second stint at the plate the All-Southern Conference first baseman rapped another weak grounder which Featherstone turned into an out. At this point some wit in the Penn State dugout called, "What did you hit that with, The Sporting News?"

When Clay drove in the Mountaineers' run with a base hit he rounded first and yelled "Hey, dugout! That wasn't The Sporting News!" While Clay was in the process of mouthing off to the dugout he wandered off first and State catcher Toby Frymire alertly tossed to Shorty Stoner at first for a pick off on the trapped Clay.

As the crestfallen runner trudged back to the visitors dugout he was followed by the joyous crys of the Penn State bench. Coach Harrick immediately removed Clay from the game.

Jim Clay—Caught Gaping

WEST VIRGINIA star Jim Clay, an All-Southern Conference first baseman, smacked two hits and drove in the Mountaineer's lone run yesterday, but was the goat of the game. After Clay's run-scoring single in the sixth, he rounded first base and paused long enough to engage the Penn State dugout in "conversation." While engaging in the forensics, Clay was caught in a rundown, tagged out and spent the rest of the afternoon on the bench.

Who Can Play Like Sandy the K?

NEW YORK (AP)—The men named likely successors to Sandy Koufax as baseball's outstanding pitcher have succeeded in doing nothing more than getting off to poor starts. Jim Kaat, a 25-game winner for Minnesota last season, has lost two of his three decisions and has a 4.82 earned run average and only six strikeouts for 18 innings.

in 1966, each has a 1-1 record while Detroit's Denny McLain, another 20 game man last year, is 2-1. Philadelphia's Jim Bunning, coming off two 19-game victories, has lost three and won only once. He was routed in the third inning Tuesday night as the Phils lost to Pittsburgh 7-3.

Clay Headed For Jail? Not Yet

HOUSTON (AP)—Cassius Clay will be free to keep on fighting and preaching for weeks whether or not he takes the oath of Army induction Friday, U.S. Atty. Norton Susman said yesterday. "There positively will be no immediate arrest," Susman said. "The wheels of justice grind slowly. It will take the government at least 30 to 60 days to complete its actions before an arrest can be made."

NCAA, AAU Still Stew

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP)—The latest shot in the running feud between the National Collegiate Athletic Association and the Amateur Athletic Union came yesterday in a charge that the AAU is "holding for ransom" the world record in the 880-yard run. The United States Track and Field Federation, an adjunct of the NCAA, charged that the AAU was holding for ransom the record set by University of Kansas speedster Jim Ryun, setting as its price "continuation of the AAU's total monopoly control of track and field in America."

this new world's record was in order" when Ryun ran the 880 in 1:44.9 on June 10, 1966 at the USTF outdoor championship track and field meet at Indiana State University, Terre Haute, Ind. "The AAU accepted the record at its annual meeting in Honolulu Dec. 1966 and presumably forwarded it along with other record applications similarly approved to the International Amateur Athletic Federation for final acceptance," Werner said.

proved and accepted the record as a new American record. "A statement by the AAU then announced that the Ryun record would be approved providing the USTF would request and obtain a retroactive AAU sanction for the meet. The AAU thus sought to gain credit for a meet which prior to the competition they had tried to destroy by threatening the eligibility of all athletes who participated in it."

AAU Plans Annual "Olympics"

NEW YORK (AP)—Grandiose plans to hold annual international summer and winter games in the United States along the lines of the Olympics and to raise a $10 million sports development fund were announced yesterday by the Amateur Athletic Union.

He said the first summer games were set tentatively for May 30, 1968—a day after what would have been Kennedy's 51st birthday — at Los Angeles and the winter games for December 1968 at Lake Placid, N.Y. Other sites could be chosen, however, said Hull.

Eagles Get Ditka For QB Concannon

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Philadelphia Eagles yesterday sent their scrambling quarterback Jack Concannon to the Chicago Bears for massive tight end Mike Ditka in a deal designed to strengthen major weaknesses on both teams caused by retirements.

AAU Plans Annual "Olympics"

The deal filled a void left on the Philadelphia squad by the retirement of Pete Rozzoff and provided the Bears with a young prospect for the quarterback role with the Bears left vacant by Rudy Bukich, who called it a career after the 1966 campaign.

Unable to reach a contract agreement with owner coach George Halas of the Bears last year, Ditka decided to play out his National Football League option. Later he accepted a $50,000 bonus to jump to the Houston Oilers of the American Football League in 1967.
